Historical Nevada

Nevada Magazine will celebrate the state's upcoming 150th birthday with the release of a special book.

What better way to commemorate Nevada's 2014 sesquicentennial than by ordering the new Historical Nevada coffee table book? Published by Nevada Magazine, with a planned print date of October 2013 (in time for Nevada Day), the book features 150 memorable images from our nearly 40 years of producing the Nevada Historical Calendar. Highlights of the hardcover book, which is $29.95 plus shipping & handling, include:

- ◆ Historical photos from around the state, including Las Vegas, Reno, Carson City, Lake Tahoe, Elko, and Virginia City.
- ◆ Images of modern ghost towns during their boom periods.
- ◆ A look back at the Nevada Historical Calendar cover images from 1978 to present.
- ◆ Detailed information with each photo.

The image below is the proposed cover for the book, a perfect addition to the Nevada history buff's collection. It also makes a great holiday gift for friends and family. The following three pages are actual pages from the book.

The Consolidated Virginia Mine in Virginia City, site of the Big Bonanza of the 1870s.

NEVADA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

In 1867, the Consolidated Virginia Mining Company began operations in Virginia City, but did not immediately achieve success. In 1871, James Flood—in partnership with John Mackay, James Fair, and William O'Brien—bought stock in Consolidated Virginia, forming the Bonanza Firm. Eventually, the men bought the land owned by Consolidated Virginia. They hit the “Big Bonanza” in 1873, extracting more than $100 million in ore over the next nine years.

NEVADA STATE LIBRARY AND ARCHIVES

Noted photographer Carleton E. Watkins took this photo of the Nevada State Capitol in Carson City in fall 1876. The fence was built in 1875, and the gates and landscaping were added in summer 1876.

Construction of the Nevada State Capitol began in spring 1870, six years after Nevada became a state. In 1875, Hannah Clapp contracted to build an iron fence around the Capitol. Prior to the time this photo was snapped, the state planted the perimeter with American elm, many of which still stand today, providing shade in the summer and beautiful fall colors on the Capitol grounds.

NEVADA DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

The mid-1940s found Reno reaping the benefits of its dual titles of divorce and gambling capital of the United States. Tens of thousands of visitors contributed to a robust economy, as evidenced by the proliferation of new businesses. Not long after this photo was taken, the posh art deco-style 12-story Maples Hotel was erected in front of the buildings in the background.

At the start of the 20th century, because of Nevada's lenient divorce laws, a number of celebrities obtained divorces in Reno, garnering the city national attention. Newspapers embellished the incidents, labeling Reno the "divorce capital." After casino gambling was legalized by the state legislature in 1931, Reno flourished with gaming establishments, giving tourists another reason to visit. ▾

EDIBLE PEDAL 100

CYCLING EVENT IS MORE THAN JUST A SCENIC RIDE THROUGH NORTHERN NEVADA.

Edible Pedal 100 gives cyclists of all skill levels a chance to ride through some of Northern Nevada's most scenic landscapes. The event takes place September 15, giving participants a chance to compete in either the 10-, 50-, or 100-mile course.

The start/finish line is located at historic Bowers Mansion. The 10-mile course offers a leisurely, scenic ride through Washoe Valley and is great for families and cyclists wishing to participate in an organized ride. The intermediate 50-mile course includes a trek along country roads and through rustic towns and contains some hill climbing. The challenging 100-mile course features a strenuous climb up Kingsbury Grade and brings riders alongside Lake Tahoe.

Rest stops are provided along all routes and include refreshments and restrooms. All are stocked with gluten-free cookies, hard-boiled eggs, potatoes, and fresh fruit. # VIVA BIKE VEGAS

CYCLISTS EXPERIENCE THE STRIP IN A WHOLE NEW WAY.

The sixth annual Viva Bike Vegas returns on September 21 for another year of cycling splendor. What has been called the "Tour de France Vegas style," the race features three different course lengths, which begin on the Strip and bring cyclists through downtown Las Vegas. Viva Bike Vegas differs from other cycling events in that it is not a competitive race, but rather a personal test of endurance.

The event allows participants a chance to ride a 17-, 61-, or 104-mile course. Each course begins on the Strip and offers riders views of downtown Las Vegas. The longer routes traverse the Las Vegas Valley and bring riders through the Red Rock Canyon National Conservation Area and near Lake Mead National Recreation Area.

All participants receive a race T-shirt, lunch, a "swag bag," police escort down the Strip, and access to the Viva Bike Vegas after party.

WORLD HUMAN-POWERED SPEED CHALLENGE

CYCLISTS REACH RECORD-BREAKING SPEEDS WITHOUT THE AID OF A MOTOR.

PLAN YOUR VISIT

World Human-Powered
Speed Challenge
Sept. 9-14
whpsc.org
707-443-8261

From September 9-14, the fastest cyclists from across the globe gather for the 14th consecutive year on State Route 305 for the World Human-Powered Speed Challenge (WHPSC). Riders use custom-made bicycles that allow them to reach speeds exceeding 80 mph.

The event takes place on a five-mile-plus stretch of highway, allowing speed bikes to reach maximum velocity before being timed over a 200-meter distance. The section of highway, 14 miles south of Battle Mountain, is considered to be one of the straightest, flattest, and smoothest road surfaces in the world, making it the perfect venue for the high-speed race. The WHPSC, in conjunction with the Nevada Department of Transportation and the Lander County Department of Tourism, refinished the road's surface in 2009 specifically for the event.

The fully enclosed bikes are built with speed and safety in mind. Kevlar and carbon fiber make up the exterior, with custom-built bicycles on the inside. Aerodynamics play an important role in the engineering of each bike.

Spectators can view the free event each morning from 7 to 10 a.m., and each evening from 5 to 7 p.m. If attendees wish to leave their car in Battle Mountain, there is a commuter shuttle that leaves the Battle Mountain Civic Center each day at 4:45 p.m. and returns at 7:30 p.m. Bleachers are located at the timing traps for those who wish to see riders at full speed. The Civic Center is hosting a show and shine on September 10 from noon to 2 p.m. for those who would like to see the bikes and meet the riders. ▀

LAUGHLIN INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

CINEMATIC CELEBRATION LIGHTS UP THE SILVER SCREEN.

The Laughlin International Film Festival (LIFF) returns to Southern Nevada from October 17-20 for another year of cinematic excellence. The festival highlights numerous feature films, short films, and documentaries created by independent filmmakers worldwide. The Laughlin Stadium 9 Cinemas are hosting the event, screening films in three state-of-the-art theaters.

Not only can attendees view the film screenings, but they also have the opportunity to enjoy numerous social events. On opening night, filmmakers and LIFF ticket holders have the opportunity to walk down the red carpet. The event also hosts a Halloween Cosmic Bowling Party, in which actors, filmmakers, and fans are encouraged to don their Halloween costumes and knock down some pins. Attendees can also enjoy a filmmaker breakfast panel and discussion, filmmaker lounge and after parties, and an awards ceremony.

Filmmakers wanting to get tips from the pros have a chance to attend up to four different workshops throughout the event.

The festival includes a number of different film categories including narratives, documentaries, short films, experimental cinema, extreme sports, animation, music video, and a university film competition. LIFF also encourages high school students and young filmmakers by offering a special youth films category (18 and younger) and a youth film workshop. Proceeds support the Boys and Girls Club of the Colorado River as well as the Fueled by the Fallen Memorial Organization. ▾

NEVADA TROPHY

OFF-ROAD ENTHUSIASTS COVER AMPLE GROUND DURING DESERT CHALLENGE.

From October 18-20, off-road enthusiasts gather in Northern Nevada for the annual Nevada Trophy navigational adventure. Described as a combination of off-road terrain navigation and geocaching, Nevada Trophy challenges participants to search for waypoints in the desert.

Participants receive a book with the coordinates and are given 12-15 hours per day to use GPS navigation to search. Waypoints are given in longitude/latitude form and equal a different amount of points based on the difficulty level of finding them. The team that collects the most points wins; however, it isn't that simple.

Because there is not enough time to collect all the waypoints, drivers must strategically select locations. Mandatory waypoints and special tasks are thrown into the mix and can either add points or subtract them. The vast Nevada desert provides endless areas where waypoints can be hidden. A road sign, a Nevada historical marker, trees, bushes, or even a stick in the ground are all fair game.

Each team must have a driver and a navigator, with two cars making a team. 4WD vehicles are required along with navigation and safety gear. ▀

CANDY DANCE

TIME-HONORED FESTIVAL RETURNS TO GENOA FOR ITS 93RD YEAR.

September 28-29 marks the 93rd year the Town of Genoa will host its annual Candy Dance Arts and Crafts Faire. This year's theme, Bonanza Extravaganza, celebrates Nevada's upcoming sesquicentennial. With more than 300 craft and food vendors, Candy Dance attracts thousands of visitors each year with plenty of activities including the signature dinner-dance, which holds a unique history.

Originating in 1919 as an effort to raise money to purchase streetlights for the small community of Genoa, Lillian Virgin Finnegan, daughter of then Judge Daniel Webster Virgin, suggested the idea of a fundraiser dance in which candy would be passed around to increase turnout. The event managed to raise the required funds for the streetlights; however, a town electrical bill resulted from the newfound luxury. The solution—candymakers were called upon each year to help promote the Candy Dance to pay for a year's worth of electricity bills. The Arts and Crafts Faire was added in the 1970s, before it became a two-day event.

The highlight of the annual event is the Saturday night dinner-dance. Tickets are $28 for adults and $20 for children 12 and younger and include an all-you-can-eat dinner catered by Carson City Barbecue. If attendees want to attend the dance only, tickets can be purchased for $20 for both adults and children. The Michael Fender Show is furnishing the tunes. Doors to the dance open at 4:30 p.m., with dinner being served from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Tickets can be purchased at the Genoa Town Office or by calling 775-782-8696. Jackpot VIP tickets cost $50 per person and include VIP dinner seating, premier wines, a souvenir wine glass, and a commemorative poster. ▾

ALSO IN GENOA SWEET SIPPIN' SUNDAYS

September 1 & October 6

On the first Sunday of the month, May through October, Genoa hosts its Sweet Sippin' Sundays event, which raises money for several different local charities. The event features live music, prizes, sweets, and some delectable cocktails for attendees to sample. $12 gets you a keepsake glass and a Sweet Sippin' passport that allows attendees to access vendors.

Each month has a different theme. September's is tequila, which of course means margaritas. The event is September 1, with all proceeds going to the Gardnerville and Scarselli elementary schools. Vodka is the theme for October 6, with all proceeds being donated to the Greater Genoa Business Association.

Concerts on the Green

September 8

Bring a picnic and a blanket to Genoa Park and enjoy an evening of free music. The event begins at 4 p.m. and features cowboy and folk band Old West Trio.

Halloween Party and Hayride

October 31

Genoa residents have the opportunity to celebrate Halloween during the annual Halloween Party and Hayride. Dinner, drinks, and treats are provided for attendees. Children can enjoy a pumpkin-decorating contest, and the hayride begins at 5 p.m. outside Genoa Town Hall.

FRIDA KAHLO: HER PHOTOS

RENOWNED ARTIST'S PHOTOGRAPHS MAKE A STOP IN RENO.

Starting September 7, Reno's Nevada Museum of Art is celebrating distinguished painter Frida Kahlo with a collection of her personal photographs that have been hidden from the public for more than half a century. The gallery is made up of 240 images, which have been carefully selected from Kahlo's collection of more than 6,500 photographs. Upon her death in 1954, the photographs belonging to Kahlo and her husband and renowned painter Diego Rivera were placed in storage where they remained until 2007.

Frida Kahlo: Her Photos sheds light on a lesser-known side of Kahlo, reflecting her tastes and interests, experiences she shared with those who were close to her, and her complex, but also exciting, personal life. According to the Nevada Museum of Art, "Viewers get an insider's look, not only through who was behind the camera, in front of the lens, or the anonymous nature of some of the work, but also through the annotated writing found on the back of many of the photographs."

The gallery includes family pictures and snapshots taken with lovers. It takes a look into Kahlo's associations with Russian Marxist revolutionary Leon Trotsky, American photographers Edward Weston, Alfred Stieglitz, and Georgia O'Keefe, and actress Dolores Del Rio. ▾

If you've ever experienced some of life's more-challenging relationship twists, "The D* Word" will provide some comic relief. "The D* Word," Las Vegas' hilarious new musical, celebrates being ditched, dumped, divorced, and the ups and downs of dating.

The 90-minute show, now playing at LVH, features four single women who rely on the aid of friendship, martinis, and "mojo makeovers" to survive their relationships—or lack thereof. The musical features classic relationship-themed songs including Gloria Gaynor's "I Will Survive," Carrie Underwood's "Before He Cheats," and Kelly Clarkson's "Stronger."

Writer and producer of "The D* Word," Jeanie Linders, is not an amateur when it comes to crafting comedic musicals. As the creator of the hit "Menopause The Musical," Linders' new musical promises to keep the audience in stitches, even providing attendees with a complimentary shot glass.

"The D*Word has been described as 'Sex and the City' meets 'Mamma Mia,'" Linders says, "and has the appeal of being able to laugh out loud with your friends no matter your current D word."

The musical is held in the 350-seat Shimmer Cabaret, providing an intimate setting for the off-Broadway production.

SECOND ANNUAL NEVADA COMMISSION ON TOURISM CONTEST REVEALS SIX STATE TREASURES. THE WINNERS ARE:

Cowboy Country

The Star Hotel, Elko

Defending its state treasure title earned in the inaugural 2012 DYN contest, The Star Hotel restaurant specializes in traditional Basque cuisine. The Star Hotel first opened its doors to Nevadans and visitors in 1910 and has since been converted exclusively into a restaurant. A custom rooted in Basque culture in the American West, The Star serves up its cuisine family style, offering traditional steak and lamb dishes, soup, chorizo, and fries.

elkostarhotel.com, 775-738-9925

Indian Territory

The Lost City Museum, Overton

The Lost City Museum is located on a prehistoric site of the ancestral Puebloan people who first populated Southern Nevada circa 300 B.C. The National Park Service built the museum in 1935 to exhibit artifacts that were being excavated from Pueblo Grande de Nevada. Visitors can observe an excavated pit house and artifacts, reconstructed Pueblo houses, and various other exhibits, and the museum hosts several children's activities.

Nevada Silver Trails

Pahrump Valley Winery, Pahrump

Who would've thought that a winery built in the Mojave Desert would produce such exceptional pours? The award-winning winery features a tasting room, a tranquil rose garden with a gazebo, an outdoor stage, and an upscale, casual restaurant. Join the Pahrump Valley Winery for its annual Grape Stomp, October 5-6, and enjoy grape stomping, live music, and, of course, some delectable Nevada wines. pahrumppwinery.com, 775-751-7800

Pony Express Territory

Nevada Northern Railway, Ely

Also voted a state treasure in 2012, the Nevada Northern Railway leaves even seasoned railroad buffs with newfound knowledge. With the best-preserved short line railway in the country, the National Historic Landmark provides visitors a chance to experience the working railroad. The museum is dedicated to restoring, preserving, interpreting, and operating the historic facilities, yards, and rail collection. nnry.com, 866-407-8326

Reno-Tahoe Territory

Dangberg Home Ranch Historic Park, Minden

Also reclaiming its 2012 title, the historic Dangberg Ranch, founded in 1857, is one of Nevada's oldest and largest ranches. The 58,000-acre ranch still holds some of the original buildings, which are in the process of being restored. The ranch is operated as a museum (appointment required), offering visitors a look at the buildings and original artifacts. The ranch frequently hosts special events, including exhibits and an outdoor concert series. dangberghomeranch.org, 775-783-9417

A Golden Silver State

This scene was captured on a cool September 2012 afternoon on the newest trail at the mouth of Lamoille Canyon, southeast of Elko. The 11-mile Lamoille-Talbot Trail has “beautiful, high views of Spring Creek, Lamoille, and sprawling ranchlands,” Esplin says.

On October 20, 2012, Homen was taking wedding portraits at the Stonehouse Country Inn, located in quaint Paradise Valley, north of Winnemucca. “The light was fantastic for shots around the yard with the wagon [resting beside] the massive old cottonwood trees,” he says. “This remains one of my all-time favorite prints.”
