STATE OF NEVADA—DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
CARSON CITY, December 31, 1898.

To His Excellency, HON. REINHOLD SADLER, Governor :

SIR : I herewith transmit my three second biennial reports under one cover, for the years 1897 and 1898, for the different departments under the consolidation effected by enactment of the Legislature, going into effect January 8, 1895, upon my incumbency.

Herewith find reports, to-wit : each distinct and separate, and arranged in order as follows : Report of the office of Secretary of State, Report of the office of Clerk of the Supreme Court and Supreme Court Reporter, and Report of the State Library. Though each Report is distinct and by itself, I have prepared said Reports in one volume, so as to save the expense of binding each separately. Respectfully,

EUGENE HOWELL,

REPORT OF OFFICE SECRETARY OF STATE.

STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

The State Board of Examiners, consisting of the Governor, Secretary of State and Attorney-General, have, during the past two years, met in regular monthly session for the purpose of approving all equitable claims against the State, and also in special session divers times throughout each and every month for the purpose of passing upon and examining urgent claims, and for the transaction of such other business as was deemed necessary, and would be of benefit to the welfare of the State. All contracts made by this Board have been carefully investigated and examined, and at all times on the most advantageous terms for the good of the State.

All the clerical details of the Board have been given strict and conscientious attention by Jonathan Doane, Clerk of the Board. All accounts have been kept in a systematic manner, in detail and by item, so as to be plain and specific, and showing the different claims approved, with the name of the claimant, date, amount, etc.

As a Board, we mourn the loss of Governor John E. Jones, who died April 10, 1895, and of Attorney-General Robert M. Beatty, who died December 10, 1896—both conscientious and painstaking officers, and who, as members of the Board, gave the work their undivided time and attention. Their places have been filled by Acting Governor Reinhold Sadler and Attorney-General James R. Judge in an able and efficient manner.

MONEYS AND SECURITIES.

The moneys and securities in the State Treasury have been regularly counted once a month by the State Board of Examiners, in accordance with the law (General Statutes 1893, p. 517).

Likewise the office of Clerk of the Supreme Court, in mailing transcripts, sending down remittiturs, reporting decisions, etc., which in that office the work has been largely increased owing to the law regulating appeals, approved March 18, 1895, p. 58.

Total receipts for the two years		$8,476 40

REMARKS.

The above receipts are turned into the State Treasury and go into the General Fund in said Treasury. The major portion of this money is acquired from the United States Government, from board, lodging and keeping of United States prisoners at our State Prison at the contract rate of 75 cents per day, for each prisoner. Said contract was entered into with the said Federal authorities by the Board of State Prison Commissioners of this State.

The State Prison Fund receives no benefit whatever from these receipts; but on the contrary, the Prison appropriation is drawn upon daily for the maintenance and keeping of the said wards of the Federal Government.

Though the Prison Fund is monthly diminished by a contract of this kind, still it is a profitable contract for the State, as can be judged by the amount of receipts turned into the General Fund of the State Treasury.

BOARD OF STATE PRISON COMMISSIONERS.

The Board of State Prison Commissioners, consisting of the Governor, Secretary of State and Attorney-General, under the statute approved March 6, 1893, taking effect on the third Wednesday of January, 1895, did on that day elect Mr. L. O. Henderson, of Elko, as Warden of the State Prison, for the term of four years, in accordance with said law. Said Prison Commissioners have duly inspected the State Prison from time to time, and as a member of the Board I take pleasure in attesting to the very efficient administration of Warden Henderson, who has managed the Prison on a basis more economical than has ever been conducted in the history of the institution.

BALLOT PAPER AND ELECTIONS.

In accordance with an Act of the Legislature, approved March 13, 1891, commonly known as the Australian Ballot Law, the Secretary of State is empowered and authorized to purchase and furnish the necessary ballot paper under that law that may be required by the County Clerks in the different counties throughout the State. For this purpose an appropriation of $1,000 was made by the Legislature in 1895 to buy and freight said ballot paper for 1896 and for election expenses during that year. I used but $324 64 of said appropriation, and turned back into the Treasury a balance of $675 36. In 1897 the Legislature made an appropriation of $400 to pay for the election expenses of 1898. In accordance thereof, I made the lowest contract possible, for the purchase of ballot paper, and furnished all the County Clerks all the ballots they necessarily required at an expense to the State as per the following itemized account:

*The saving was effected largely upon the favorable terms secured in the purchase of ballot paper.

STATUTES OF 1897.

Much pains were taken in preparing the Statutes of 1897. The Acts were immediately and duly certified to the State Printer upon their receipt in the office of the Secretary of State. Work was hurried upon them by the State Printing Office with promptness and dispatch, and the Acts returned to this office for indexing and compiling. Much fault had heretofore been found by the legal profession, prior to 1895, with the crude manner and way in which the Statutes have in the past been indexed. Extra work and time were consequently given in preparing a proper and complete index to the Statutes of 1895 and 1897, which has met with the approval of the public and bar, in its fullness and simplicity.

The Statutes and Journals of 1897, like those of 1895, were prepared, indexed, and bound and ready for distribution at a much earlier date than had ever been done before, and also bound at a cheaper figure than any set of Statutes and Journals heretofore bound, as follows:

1897.		J. B. McIntyre.
May	Binding 800 vols. Statutes, 1897		$224 00
	Binding 225 vols. Senate Journal, 1897, 225 vols. Assembly Journal, 1897, and 100 vols. Appendix, 1897		118 00
	Total		$342 00
Comparison.
	Cost binding Statutes, etc., of 1893, from Controller's books amounted to		$444 00
	Cost binding Statutes, etc., of 1895. (see Secretary of State's Report, 1895, page 18)		318 00
	Cost binding Statutes, etc., of 1897		342 00

ENROLLED LAWS.

In accordance with the law, General Statutes 1885, sec. 1929, I personally supervised the binding of the original Enrolled Laws and Resolutions of the Legislatures of the Seventeenth and Eighteenth sessions at the following figures:

Althoff, Bahls & Co., binding 1895 Enrolled Laws in patent flexible back, half Morocco leather binding, and expense Secretary State in attending to the same	$32 10
J. B. McIntyre, binding 1897 Enrolled Laws in patent flexible backs, half Morocco leather binding, and expenses Secretary State in attending to the same	$32 10

Which is 60 per cent less than the State has been accustomed to pay for this work in the past.

ADDITIONAL ROOM.

I desire to say that we are crowded for space in all three offices, and I would respectfully recommend that the Legislature provide additional cases for filing records in the office of Secretary of State and in the office of Clerk of the Supreme Court, as all the available space has been utilized in those two offices, and no accommodations have been made since the offices were originally furnished. I also desire to call the attention of the Legislature to the very crowded condition of the State Library, which is full to the utmost. Additional shelfroom must be made for books that are continually coming in. See State Library Report.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

I would recommend that the several County Clerks of each county be instructed to file in the office of Secretary of State, on or before the first Monday in November of every election year, a certified copy of the registered voters in each precinct in each of their respective counties; also an abstract statement of the county vote cast at each general election as canvassed by the Board of County Commissioners immediately after the count, and in no wise to conflict or take the place of the statutory returns in December following.

Also that the Australian Ballot Law, Statutes 1891, sec. 14, p. 43, be amended so that each county precinct should be furnished less ballot paper, as less than one half of the ballot paper ordered by the different County Clerks, under the Statute, is utilized in the different precincts.

I also recommend that the Purity of Election Law, see Statutes 1895, p. 94, sec. 3, be amended so that each candidate for the Senate and Assembly file their respective statement of election expenses with the County Clerk of the county, instead of the Secretary of State.

APPENDIX.

POLITICAL DATA.

The first public meeting, in what is now Nevada, of which any record was kept, was held at "Mormon Station" (now Genoa), November 12, 1851. The object of this meeting was to organize a squatter government, and to adopt local rules for the government of the settlers and their property. The meeting agreed upon a petition to the National Congress for a Territorial Government. A second meeting was held November 19th, same year, and the next day a local form of government was adopted.

Carson county, Utah, was organized by the following Act:

An Act defining the boundaries of Carson county, and providing for the organization thereof.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Governor and Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah: That all that portion of the country bounded north by Desert county, east by the parallel of longitude 118°, south by the boundary line of this Territory, and west by California, is hereby included within the limits of Carson county, and until organized is attached to Millard county for election, revenue and judicial purposes.

SEC. 2. The Governor is hereby authorized to appoint a Probate Judge for said county, when he shall deem it expedient, and said Probate Judge, when appointed, shall proceed to organize said county, by dividing the county into precincts and causing an election to be held according to law, to fill the various county and precinct offices, and locate the county seat thereof.

W. RICHARDS,
President of the Council.

J. M. GRANT,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Approved January 17, 1854.

BRIGHAM YOUNG,
Governor of Utah Territory.

TERRITORY OF UTAH,
SECRETARY'S OFFICE.

* I, Elijah Sells, Secretary of Utah Territory, do hereby SEAL. certify that the above and foregoing is a true copy.
* Witness my hand and the Great Seal of the Territory
* this 22d day of October, 1892.

ELIJAH SELLS,
Secretary of Utah Territory.

This embraced all of Washoe, Douglas, Lyon, Ormsby and Storey counties, the greater part of Esmeralda and Churchill counties, and a portion of Humboldt.

The first attempt at representation at Washington was made by electing James W. Crane as a delegate to present the claims of the settlers to a Territorial Government. Crane having died, John J. Musser was elected his successor November 12, 1859.

On June 6, 1859, a mass meeting of delegates from the several districts was held, at which the 14th day of July, 1859, was fixed for holding an election for the purpose of electing delegates to a constitutional convention. Delegates so elected met at Genoa on the 18th day of the same month, and in a ten days' session adopted a declaration of rights and a constitution.

This constitution was submitted to the people September 1, 1859. The constitution was adopted, and Isaac Roop elected Governor, with a Legislature and other State officers. Roop was the only officer who attempted to qualify.

The Legislature met at Genoa on the 15th day of December, 1859, and adjourned to meet in July, 1860. They never met again.

John Cradlebaugh, one of the United States District Judges for Utah Territory, arrived at Genoa in the summer of 1859, and impaneled the first grand jury that ever met in what is now the State of Nevada.

TERRITORIAL GOVERNMENT.

The Territory of Nevada was organized by an Act of Congress entitled "An Act to organize the Territory of Nevada," approved March 2, 1861.

In pursuance of this Act, James W. Nye of New York was appointed and commissioned by President Lincoln, Governor of Nevada Territory, March 22, 1861.

Governor Nye arrived in Carson July 8, 1861, and on the 11th day of that month issued a proclamation declaring the Territorial Government organized.

Wetherell, Assistant Clerk; J. B. Cormack, Sergeant-at-Arms; Charles C. Conger, Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms; C. S. Pierson, Messenger; Robert T. Haslan, Page.

The Territorial Legislature of 1862 passed an Act entitled "An Act to frame a Constitution and State Government for the State of Washoe," which was approved December 20, 1862, providing for an election on the first Wednesday in September, 1863, at which election the question of State Government or no State Government was submitted at the same time delegates were voted for as members of the convention. At this election the vote showed a popular demand for Statehood, and elected the following citizens as members of a convention:

On the 19th day of January, 1864, the Constitution framed by this convention was submitted to a vote, and at the same time the following ticket was voted for for State officers:

The Constitution was overwhelmingly defeated, while the officers were elected, but found their honors empty because there were no offices to fill.

The question of Statehood was still agitated, particularly by aspiring politicians. A session of the Territorial Legislature was held in January and February, 1864, but no provision was made for another convention. On the 21st of March, 1864, the Congress of the United States passed an Act, the title to which reads: "An Act to enable the people of the Territory of Nevada to form a Constitution and State Government, and for the admission of such State into the Union on an equal footing with the original States."

Under this Congressional Act delegates to a convention were elected, and on the 4th day of July, 1864, met at Carson City, Nevada. The Constitution of 1863 was taken as a basis, and, after a session of twenty-three days, the present Constitution was formulated, differing in but few material features from that of 1863.

The personnel of this convention was as follows:

An Act of the Legislature of 1861 provided for a Territorial Seal, designed as follows:

Mountains with a stream of water coursing down their sides and falling on the overshot wheel of a quartz mill at the base. A miner leaning on his pick and upholding a United States flag with a motto expressing the two ideas of loyalty to the Union and the wealth to sustain it: Volens et Potens.

Several designs were made and submitted for a State Seal, none of which proved acceptable. The Legislature in 1866 passed an Act providing for "a Seal of State for the State of Nevada." It is described in the Act as follows: "The Great Seal of the State of Nevada," the design of which shall be as follows, to-wit: In the foreground two large mountains, at the base of which, on the right, there shall be located a quartz mill, and on the left a tunnel penetrating the silver leads of the mountain, with a miner running out a carload of ore and a team loaded with ore for the mill. Immediately in the foreground there shall be emblems indicative of the agricultural resources of the State; a plow, a sheaf and a sickle; in the middle ground a train of railroad cars passing a mountain gorge; also a telegraph line extending along the line of the railroad. In the extreme background a range of snow-clad mountains, with the rising sun in the east; thirty-six stars to encircle the whole group in an outer circle, the words "The Great Seal of the State of Nevada," to be engraven, with these words for the motto of the State: "All for Our Country."

IN REVIEW.

In review I desire to state that I entered upon my manifold duties on the 8th of January, 1895, and have endeavored to fulfill those duties in an honest and conscientious manner. The consolidation of the offices of Secretary of State, Clerk of the Supreme Court and State Librarian, was something never before attempted, and is the only consolidation effected in the way of retrenchment and reform in State offices in Nevada. I was compelled to face the duties of three different offices that have always been under three different and separate official heads.

My work in conducting the three offices in the past four years demonstrates whether the consolidation has been a success or not in the way of efficiency and in the way of retrenchment and economy. I have succeeded in attending to all of these duties successfully by systematizing the work in the different departments under me. My deputy I have kept in the one office of Secretary of State, the Library Clerk in the Library, and myself individually in the office of Clerk of the Supreme Court, where I perform the clerical work appertaining to the latter office in person and am present at all sittings of the Supreme Bench, besides supervising the work as a head in the other two departments just spoken of. In all, the work and duties in the three offices have run along smoothly and without friction.

SAVING.

In the matter of saving to the State in the consolidation of offices under me, it can be noted that the economy effected by such consolidation is very great. The salaries of several State officers were cut down, commencing January 8, 1895, to $2,400 per annum. Prior to that time and before the consolidation, the expenses were as follows:

EXPENSES OF 1891-94 COMPARED WITH EXPENSES OF 1895-98.

Secretary of State, per year.....	$3,000 00
Deputy Secretary of State, per year.....	2,000 00
Lieutenant-Governor, as ex officio Adjutant-General and ex officio Librarian, received per annum $2,700. He was in person in the Library nine months of every year, according to the figures of ex-Lieutenant-Governor Poujade, Librarian,.....	2,025 00
Clerk Supreme Court.....	2,400 00
Ex officio Supreme Court Reporter.....	600 00
A total per year of.....	$10,025 00
Making total expenditures for the term of four years up to 1895.....	$40,100 00

CONTRA.

Under the consolidation, taking effect January 8, 1895, of the offices since that day under me, the expense to the State for conducting the said offices is as follows:

EXPENSES OF 1895-98, PER YEAR.

Secretary of State, per year.....	$2,400 00
Deputy Secretary of State, per year.....	1,200 00
Library Clerk, per year.....	720 00
Clerk Supreme Court, as ex officio Supreme Court Reporter.....	600 00
Total per year.....	$4,920 00
For the term of four years up to 1899.....	$19,680 00
Summary.
Expenses 1891-1894 for conducting the three said offices.....	$40,100 00
Expenses 1895-1896 for conducting the three said offices.....	$19,680 00
Making amount saved to the State for 1895-1898 under the consolidation.....	$20,420 00

As will be seen $19,680 is now paid for conducting the said offices under the consolidation for the term of four years against $40,100 formerly paid to my predecessors for doing the same work in the three said offices for the four years prior to my incumbency, thus making a saving to the State of $20,420 during my present term of office, and doing away with $2,400 per year of the salary formerly paid to the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

It will be noticed also that the combined salaries of the two deputies—one in the Secretary of State's office and the Clerk in the Library—amounting in the aggregate to $160 per month, is less than the amount, $166 66 per month, formerly paid to the one deputy in the office of Secretary of State in 1891-1894.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

EUGENE HOWELL,

Secretary of State, ex officio Clerk of the Supreme Court, ex officio Supreme Court Reporter, and ex officio State Librarian.
 CARON CITY, December 31, 1898.

In the matter of saving to the State in the consolidation of offices under me it can be noted that the economy effected by such consolidation is very great.
