REPORTS OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE, EX OFFICIO CLERK OF SUPREME COURT, AND EX OFFICIO STATE LIBRARIAN.

STATE OF NEVADA—DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
CARSON CITY, December 31, 1900.

To His Excellency, HON. REINHOLD SADLER, Governor:

SIR: I herewith transmit my third biennial report, being three reports under one cover, for the years 1899 and 1900, for the different departments under the consolidation effected by enactment of the Legislature, going into effect January 8, 1895, upon my incumbency.

Herewith find reports, to wit: each distinct and separate, and arranged in order as follows: Report of the office of Secretary of State, Report of the office of Clerk of the Supreme Court and Supreme Court Reporter, and Report of the State Library. Though each Report is distinct and by itself, I have prepared said Reports in one volume, so as to save the expense of binding each separately. Respectfully,

EUGENE HOWELL,
Secretary of State,
Ex officio Clerk of Supreme Court,
Ex officio State Librarian.

REPORT OF OFFICE SECRETARY OF STATE.

STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

As a member of the State Board of Examiners for the past six years, I have been an active participant in its work and can bear testimony to the good work done by said Board. This Board, consisting of the Governor, Secretary of State and Attorney-General, is the last Board of resort, and all claims against the State come finally before it for auditing and approval.

The Board has met in regular monthly session for the purpose of approving all equitable claims, and also in special session divers times throughout each and every month for the purpose of passing upon and examining urgent claims, and for the transaction of such other business as was deemed necessary and would be of benefit to the welfare of the State. All contracts made by this Board have been carefully investigated and examined, and at all times on the most advantageous terms for the good of the State.

All the clerical details of the Board have been given strict and conscientious attention by A. W. Morris, Clerk of the Board. All accounts have been kept in a systematic manner, in detail and by item, so as to be plain and specific, and showing the different claims approved, with the name of the claimant, date, amount, etc.

MONEYS AND SECURITIES.

The moneys and securities in the State treasury have been regularly counted and officially published once a month by the State Board of Examiners, in accordance with the law (Compiled Laws 1900, sec. 2019).

AS A FURNISHING BOARD.

The State Board of Examiners as an ex officio Furnishing Board, in accordance with an Act approved March 2, 1877—Compiled Laws, sec. 2029—for the purpose of procuring stationery for the State officers and Legislature, did, under such authorization, purchase stationery of George W. Cagwin of Carson City, Nevada, in 1899–1900, in accordance with a contract entered into with the said George W. Cagwin for the said two years, said contract during 1899 being transferred to Davis & Farrer.

An itemized statement of the stationery bought of the said contractors and used in the different State departments during that length of time will be found under the Stationery Account for 1899–1900.

Bids were invited for furnishing stationery for the incoming two years. The same was advertised for under the statute, and the contract for supplying said stationery was duly awarded by the Board upon the 4th of December, 1900, to Mrs. S. J. Fox of Carson City, for the two years, 1901 and 1902.

Likewise the office of Clerk of the Supreme Court, in mailing transcripts, sending down remittiturs, reporting decisions, etc., which in that office the work has been largely increased owing to the law regulating appeals, approved March 18, 1895, Compiled Laws, sec. 3862, p. 796.

REMARKS.

The above receipts are turned into the State treasury and go into the General Fund in said treasury. The major portion of this money is acquired from the United States Government, from board, lodging and keeping of United States prisoners at our State Prison at the contract rate of 75 cents per day, for each prisoner. Said contract was entered into with the said Federal authorities by the Board of State Prison Commissioners of this State.

The State Prison Fund receives no benefit whatever from these receipts; but, on the contrary, the prison appropriation is drawn upon daily for the maintenance and keeping of the said wards of the Federal Government.

Though the Prison Fund is monthly diminished by a contract of this kind, still it is a profitable contract for the State, as can be judged by the amount of receipts turned into the General Fund of the State treasury.

BOARD OF STATE PRISON COMMISSIONERS.

The Board of State Prison Commissioners, consisting of the Governor, Secretary of State and Attorney-General, under the Statutes approved March 6, 1893, did on the third Wednesday in January, 1898, elect Mr. L. O. Henderson of Elko as Warden of the State Prison for the term of four years, to take effect from the 1st of February of said year, in accordance with said law. Mr. Henderson is serving his second term, he having formerly been elected Warden in January, 1895.

Said Prison Commissioners have duly inspected the State Prison from time to time, and, as a member of the board, I take pleasure in attesting to the very efficient administration of Warden Henderson, who has maintained discipline in every instance, and has managed the prison on a basis more economical than has ever been conducted in the history of the institution.

BALLOT PAPER AND ELECTIONS.

In accordance with an Act of the Legislature, approved March 13, 1891, commonly known as the Australian Ballot Law, the Secretary of State is empowered and authorized to purchase and furnish the necessary ballot paper under that law that may be required by the different County Clerks in the different counties throughout the State. For this purpose an appropriation of $1,000 was made by the Legislature in 1895 to buy and freight said ballot paper for 1896, and for election expenses during that year. I used but $324 64 of said appropriation, and turned back into the treasury a balance of $673 36. Upon my recommendation the Legislature of 1897 appropriated $400, out of which I used $360 95. In 1899, a like appropriation of $400 was made by the Legislature for the election of 1900. Although paper had materially advanced in price, I fortunately succeeded in making a contract price under the circumstances for a good quality of paper of Irwin, Hodson & Co., of Portland, Oregon, with the dandy roll water mark required by the statute. I thus had a sufficient quantity of such paper on hand to answer all the requirements of the County Clerks and voters throughout the State.

Subjoined find the account of election expenses per item:

ELECTION EXPENSES OF 1900.

1900.	Articles.	Amount.
Aug. 14	Ballot paper, Irwin, Hodson & Co.	$176 88

Oct. 19	Postage	91 00
Oct. 19	Messages	4 66
Oct. 26	Expressage	7 81
	Total	$389 24

Comparison.

Election expenses for 1894, from Controller's books	$608 20
Election expenses for 1896*	324 64
Election expenses for 1898*	360 95
Election expenses for 1900*	381 43

*The saving was effected largely upon the favorable terms secured in the purchase of ballot paper, and shows a saving to the State during the last three elections of 42 per cent.

STATUTES OF 1899.

Much pains were taken in preparing the Statutes of 1899. The Acts were immediately and duly certified to the State Printer upon their receipt in the office of Secretary of State. Work was hurried upon them in the State Printing Office with promptness and dispatch, and the Acts returned to this office for indexing and compiling. Much fault had heretofore been found by the legal profession, prior to 1895, with the crude manner and way in which the Statutes have in the past been indexed. Extra work and time were consequently given in preparing a proper and complete index to the Statutes of 1895, 1897 and 1899, which has met with the approval of the public and Bar, in its fullness and simplicity.

The Statutes and Journals of 1899, like those of 1895 and 1897, were prepared indexed and bound and ready for distribution at even an earlier date than 1895 and 1897, and also bound at a cheaper figure than any set of Statutes and Journals prior to 1895, as follows:

May 2	Binding 800 vols. Statutes 1899	$224 00
May 2	Binding 225 vols. Senate Journal 1899; 225 vols. Assembly Journal 1899; 100 vols. Appendix 1899	122 00
	Total	$346 00

Comparison.

Cost of binding Statutes, etc., of 1891, from Controller's books	$564 85
Cost of binding Statutes, etc., of 1893, from Controller's books	444 00
Cost of binding Statutes, etc., of 1895 (see Secretary of State's Report, page 18)	318 00
Cost of binding Statutes, etc., of 1897 (see Secretary of State's Report, page 21)	342 00
Cost of binding Statutes, etc., of 1899	346 00

Showing a saving to the State of 34 per cent during the last six years.

ENROLLED LAWS.

In accordance with the law, General Statutes 1885, sec. 1929, I personally supervised the binding of the original Enrolled Laws and Resolutions of the Legislature of the Seventeenth and Eighteenth sessions at the following figures:

1895—Althoff, Bahls & Co., binding 1895 Enrolled Laws in patent flexible back, half Morocco leather binding, and expense Secretary of State in attending to the same	$32 10
1897—J. B. McIntyre, binding 1897 Enrolled Laws in patent flexible backs, half Morocco leather binding, and expenses Secretary of State in attending to the same	32 10
1899—J. B. McIntyre, binding 1899 Enrolled Laws in patent flexible backs, half Morocco leather binding, and expenses Secretary of State in attending to the same	32 10

It cost the State for binding the Enrolled Laws in 1893, $92 50.

BINDING.

I desire to say that in binding Statutes, Journals, Supreme Court Reports, books, and all work of that character appertaining to the different offices I represent, I have given such matters my strictest personal attention, and have in all cases succeeded in benefiting the State by securing lower rates for binding than has been done heretofore.

In the compilation of the laws of 1900 the bids for binding were so high that I was compelled to ignore them entirely, and necessitated my interviewing personally the bidders and other binderies in California, where I managed to let the contract for binding 790 volumes at 54 cents per volume, thus saving the State several hundred dollars.

COMPILED LAWS OF NEVADA OF 1900.

By an Act of the Legislature approved February 15, 1899, H. C. Cutting, Esq., was duly empowered and authorized to prepare an annotated and thorough compilation of the laws of this State.

The present volume, containing 1,075 pages, speaks for itself, and reflects much credit upon the compiler, Mr. Cutting. Fifteen hundred copies were printed in the State Printing Office, and 790 volumes were bound by Brown, Power & Co. of San Francisco at 54 cents per volume.

The work of the State Printing Office on the Compiled Laws demonstrates the efficiency of that department. The clear, uniform and elegant work done in printing the said laws cannot be surpassed, and should be a source of much gratification to the legal profession as well as to Superintendent of State Printing Maute.

The said laws are sold for six dollars per volume and distributed in conformity with law. (Statutes 1899, p. 19.)

RECOMMENDATIONS.

I would recommend that the several County Clerks of each county be instructed to file in the office of Secretary of State, on or before the first Monday in November of every election year, a certified copy of the registered voters in each precinct in each of their respective counties; also that the Australian Ballot Law, Statutes 1891, sec. 20, p. 44, be amended so that the names on each ballot may be marked with a cross made by a stamp after the name instead of with a lead pencil.

I also recommend that 500 copies of the 17th Nevada Supreme Court Report be printed and bound, as the printed edition ran out several years ago, and there are now but 29 copies of said Report on hand.

APPENDIX.

POLITICAL DATA.

The first public meeting, in what is now Nevada, of which any record was kept, was held at "Mormon Station" (now Genoa), November 12, 1851. The object of this meeting was to organize a squatter government, and to adopt local rules for the government of the settlers and their property. The meeting agreed upon a petition to the National Congress for a Territorial Government. A second meeting was held November 19th, same year, and the next day a local form of government was adopted.

Carson county, Utah, was organized by the following Act:

An Act defining the boundaries of Carson county, and providing for the organization thereof.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Governor and Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah: That all that portion of the country bounded north by Desert county, east by the parallel of longitude 118°, south by the boundary line of this Territory, and west by California, is hereby included within the limits of Carson county, and until organized is attached to Millard county for election, revenue and judicial purposes.

SEC. 2. The Governor is hereby authorized to appoint a Probate Judge for said county, when he shall deem it expedient, and said Probate Judge, when appointed, shall proceed to organize said county, by dividing the county into precincts and causing an election to be held according to law, to fill the various county and precinct offices, and locate the county seat thereof.

W. RICHARDS,
President of the Council.

J. M. GRANT,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Approved January 17, 1854:

BRIGHAM YOUNG,
Governor of Utah Territory.

TERRITORY OF UTAH,
SECRETARY'S OFFICE.

SEAL.

I, Elijah Sells, Secretary of Utah Territory, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true copy.

Witness my hand and the Great Seal of the Territory this 22d day of October, 1892.

ELIJAH SELLS,
Secretary of Utah Territory.

This embraced all of Washoe, Douglas, Lyon, Ormsby and Storey counties, the greater part of Esmeralda and Churchill counties, and a portion of Humboldt.

The first attempt at representation at Washington was made by electing James W. Crane as a delegate to present the claims of the settlers to a Territorial Government. Crane having died, John J. Musser was elected his successor November 12, 1859.

On June 6, 1859, a mass meeting of delegates from the several districts was held, at which the 14th day of July, 1859, was fixed for holding an election for the purpose of electing delegates to a constitutional convention. Delegates so elected met at Genoa on the 18th day of the same month, and in a ten days' session adopted a declaration of rights and a constitution.

This constitution was submitted to the people September 1, 1859, The constitution was adopted, and Isaac Roop elected Governor, with a Legislature and other State officers. Roop was the only officer who attempted to qualify.

The Legislature met at Genoa on the 15th day of December, 1859, and adjourned to meet in July, 1860. They never met again.

John Cradlebaugh, one of the United States District Judges for Utah Territory, arrived at Genoa in the summer of 1859, and impaneled the first grand jury that ever met in what is now the State of Nevada.

The Constitution was overwhelmingly defeated, while the officers were elected, but found their honors empty because there were no offices to fill.

The question of Statehood was still agitated, particularly by aspiring politicians. A session of the Territorial Legislature was held in January and February, 1864, but no provision was made for another convention. On the 21st of March, 1864, the Congress of the United States passed an Act, the title to which reads: "An Act to enable the people of the Territory of Nevada to form a Constitution and State Government, and for the admission of such State into the Union on an equal footing with the original States."

Under this Congressional Act delegates to a convention were elected, and on the 4th day of July, 1864, met at Carson City, Nevada. The Constitution of 1863 was taken as a basis, and, after a session of twenty-three days, the present Constitution was formulated, differing in but few material features from that of 1863.

The personnel of this convention was as follows:

An Act of the Legislature of 1861 provided for a Territorial Seal, designed as follows:

Mountains with a stream of water coursing down their sides and falling on the overshot wheel of a quartz mill at the base. A miner leaning on his pick and upholding a United States flag with a motto expressing the two ideas of loyalty to the Union and the wealth to sustain it: Volens et Potens.

Several designs were made and submitted for a State Seal, none of which proved acceptable. The Legislature in 1866 passed an Act providing for "a Seal of State for the State of Nevada." It is described in the Act as follows: "The Great Seal of the State of Nevada," the design of which shall be as follows, to wit: In the foreground two large mountains, at the base of which, on the right, there shall be located a quartz mill, and on the left a tunnel penetrating the silver leads of the mountain, with a miner running out a carload of ore and a team loaded with ore for the mill. Immediately in the foreground there shall be emblems indicative of the agricultural resources of the State; a plow, a sheaf and a sickle; in the middle ground a train of railroad cars passing a mountain gorge; also a telegraph line extending along the line of the railroad. In the extreme background a range of snow-clad mountains, with the rising sun in the east; thirty-six stars to encircle the whole group in an outer circle, the words "The Great Seal of the State of Nevada," to be engraven, with these words for the motto of the State: "All for Our Country."

BILLS.

Notice of bills.

Reading of bills.

4. At least one day's notice shall be given of the introduction of a bill, unless by consent of two-thirds of the Senate or the bill be presented by a committee in the discharge of its duty. Every bill shall receive three readings previous to its passage. The President shall give notice at each whether it be the first, second, or third reading. The first and second readings may, by consent of two-thirds of the Senate, be on the same day. The first reading of the bill shall be for information, and if opposition be made to it the question shall be, "Shall this bill be rejected?" If no opposition be made, or if the question to reject be negatived, the bill shall then take the usual course. No bill shall be amended or committed until twice read. The third reading of every bill shall be by sections.

5. One hundred and twenty copies of all bills of a general nature shall be printed for the use of the Senate and Printing. Assembly, and such other bills and matter shall be printed as may be ordered by the Senate.

All bills which have passed a second reading and are not referred, and all bills reported by Committees after the second reading, shall be placed on a general file, and shall be considered in the order in which they became entitled to a position on the file, unless otherwise especially ordered by the Senate. Engrossed bills shall be placed at the head of the file in the order in which they are reported engrossed (except general appropriation bills, which shall be at the head of the file). The file, with each bill in order, shall be conspicuously posted in the Senate Chamber each day by the Secretary.

May be committed. 8. A bill may be committed with special instructions to amend at any time before taking the final vote.

Reconsideration. 9. On the day next succeeding the final vote on any bill, said vote may be reconsidered on motion of any member, provided notice of intention to move a reconsideration was given on the day such final vote was taken, by a Senator who voted on that side which prevailed, and no motion to reconsider shall be in order on the day such final vote was taken, except by unanimous consent. Motions to reconsider a vote upon amendments to any pending question may be made and decided at once.

Different subject not admitted as amendment. 10. No subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted as an amendment; and no bill or resolution shall be amended by incorporating any irrelevant subject matter or by associating or annexing any other bill or resolution pending in the Senate, but a substitute may be offered at any time so long as the original is open to amendment.

Treated as bills. 11. Joint and concurrent resolutions addressed to Congress, or either house thereof, or to the President of the United States, or the heads of any of the National Departments, or proposing amendments to the State Constitution shall be subject, in all respects, to the foregoing rules governing the course of bills.

MOTIONS.

To be seconded. 12. No motion shall be entertained until it shall be seconded; nor debated until announced by the President. It shall be reduced to writing and read by the Secretary, if desired by the President or any Senator, before it shall be debated, and by consent of the Senate may be withdrawn before amendment or decision.

7. To amend.
8. To postpone indefinitely.

The first four shall be decided without debate.

16. When a motion to commit, to postpone to a day certain, or to postpone indefinitely has been decided, it shall not be again entertained on the same day and at the same stage of proceedings, and when a question has been postponed indefinitely it shall not again be introduced during the session except this rule be suspended by a two-thirds vote, and there shall be no reconsideration of a vote on a motion to indefinitely postpone. When not entertained.

MOTION TO STRIKE OUT ENACTING CLAUSE.

17. A motion to strike out the enacting clause of a bill or resolution shall have precedence of a motion to commit or amend, and if carried shall be equivalent to its rejection. Enacting clause.

21. A motion to reconsider shall have precedence over every other motion, except a motion to adjourn; and when the Senate adjourns while a motion to reconsider is pending, or before passing the order of Motions and Resolutions, the right to move a reconsideration shall continue to the next day of sitting. No notice of reconsideration of any final vote shall be in order on the day preceding the last day of the session.

IN REVIEW

IN REVIEW.

In review, I desire to state that I entered upon my manifold duties upon the 8th day of January, 1895, and have endeavored to fulfill those duties in an honest and conscientious manner. Consolidation of the offices of Secretary of State, Clerk of the Supreme Court and State Librarian was something never before attempted, and is the only consolidation effected in the way of retrenchment and reform in State offices in Nevada. I was compelled to face the duties of three different offices that have always been under three different and separate heads.

My work in conducting the three offices in the past six years demonstrates whether the consolidation has been a success or not in the way of efficiency and in the way of retrenchment and economy. I have succeeded in attending to all of these duties successfully by systematizing the work in the different departments under me. My deputy I have kept in the one office of Secretary of State, the Library Clerk in the Library, and myself individually in the office of Clerk of the Supreme Court, where I perform the clerical work appertaining to the latter office in person, and am present at all sittings of the Supreme Bench, besides supervising the work as a head in the other two departments just spoken of. In all, the work and duties of the three offices have run along smoothly and without friction.

SAVING.

In the matter of saving to the State in the consolidation of offices under me, it can be noted that the economy effected by such consolidation is very great. The salaries of several State officers were cut down, commencing January 8, 1895, to $2,400 per annum. Prior to that time and before the consolidation the expenses were as follows:

EXPENSES OF 1889-1894 COMPARED WITH EXPENSES OF 1895-1900.

EXPENSES OF 1889-1894, PER YEAR.

Secretary of State, per year	$3,000 00
Deputy Secretary of State, per year	2,000 00
Lieutenant-Governor, as ex officio Adjutant-General and ex officio Librarian, received per annum $2,700. He was in person in the Library nine months of every year according to the figures of ex-Lieutenant-Governor Poujade, Librarian	2,025 00
Clerk of the Supreme Court	2,400 00
Ex officio Supreme Court Reporter	600 00
A total per year of	$10,025 00
Making total expenditures for the term of six years up to 1895	$60,150 00

CONTRA.

Under the consolidation taking effect January 8, 1895, of the offices since that day under me, the expense to the State for conducting the said offices during the same length of time is as follows:

EXPENSES OF 1895-1900, PER YEAR.

Secretary of State, per year	$2,400 00
Deputy Secretary of State, per year	1,200 00
Library Clerk, per year	720 00
Clerk of Supreme Court, as ex officio Supreme Court Reporter	600 00
Total	$4,920 00
For the term of six years, up to 1901	$29,420 00

SUMMARY.

Expenses 1889-1894 for conducting the three said offices	$60,150 00
Expenses 1895-1900 for conducting the three said offices	29,420 00
Making amount saved to the State for 1895-1900 under the consolidation	$30,730 00

As will be seen, $29,420 is now paid for conducting the said offices under the consolidation for the period of six years against $60,150, formerly paid to my predecessors for doing the same work in the three said offices for six years prior to my time, thus making a saving to the State of $30,730 during my terms of office, and doing away with $2,400 per year of the salary formerly paid to the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

It will be noticed also that the combined salaries of the two deputies—one in the Secretary of State's office, and the Clerk of the Library—amounting in the aggregate to $160 per month, is less than the amount of $166 66 per month, formerly paid to the one deputy in the office of Secretary of State in 1889-1894.

REMARKS.

As has already been noted (page 21 of this Report) over $2,000 more in cash has been turned into the State treasury from the office of Secretary of State during the past six years of 1895-1900 than during the six years previous to that time.

Also, in the Clerk's office of the Supreme Court over $1,750 more has been turned into the State treasury during the same time owing to the volume of business now being taken care of in said office (page 113, this Report).

Also, there is now $2,289 in the Library Fund applicable to the purchase of books against $227 85 in the same fund upon January 8, 1895, notwithstanding that over $1,350 more money has been expended for the purchase of books during the past six years, since January 8, 1895, than during the six years previous.

I desire to especially call the attention of the Legislature to my recommendation regarding the reprinting of the 17th volume of the Nevada Supreme Court Reports (page 24 of this Report). There remain but 29 copies of said Report on hand in this office. The law requires that 50 volumes of every Report should always be kept for the use of the Legislature and the State officers. A suitable appropriation should be asked of the incoming Legislature for the reprinting of the said volume.

I wish to say further that outside of my office, on pages 17 and 18 of this Report, will be found a statement of the money on hand in the State treasury as counted by the State Board of Examiners. On December 6th of this year, there was on that day in the State treasury $166,998 05 in coin, a State bond of $262,600, an irredeemable school bond of $380,000, and $785,000 in United States bonds drawing 4 per cent interest belonging to the School Fund. All going to show that the State of Nevada is on a better financial basis than any other State in the Union in proportion to its inhabitants, a fact that is not known to everyone.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
