REPORTS OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE, EX
OFFICIO CLERK OF SUPREME COURT, AND EX OFFICIO STATE LIBRARIAN.

STATE OF NEVADA—DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
CARSON CITY, December 31, 1902. }

To His Excellency, HON. REINHOLD SADLER, Governor:

SIR: I herewith transmit my fourth biennial report, being three reports under one cover, for the years 1901-1902, for the different departments under the consolidation effected by enactment of the Legislature, going into effect January 8, 1895, upon my incumbency.

Herewith find reports, to wit: each distinct and separate, and arranged in order as follows: Report of the office of Secretary of State, Report of the office of Clerk of the Supreme Court and Supreme Court Reporter, and Report of the State Library. Though each Report is distinct and by itself, I have prepared said Reports in one volume, so as to save the expense of binding each separately, and this method has since been endorsed by Act of the Legislature, Statutes 1901, page 83. Respectfully,

Eugene Howell.

Secretary of State,
Ex officio Clerk of Supreme Court,
Ex officio State Librarian.

REPORT OF OFFICE SECRETARY OF STATE.

STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

As a member of the State Board of Examiners for the past eight years, I have been an active participant in its work and can bear testimony to the good work done by said Board. This Board, consisting of the Governor, Secretary of State and Attorney-General, is the last Board of resort, and all claims against the State come finally before this Board for auditing and approval.

The Board has met in regular monthly session for the purpose of approving all equitable claims, and also in special session divers times throughout each and every month for the purpose of passing upon and examining urgent claims, and for the transaction of such other business as was deemed necessary and would be of benefit to the welfare of the State. All contracts made by this Board have been carefully investigated and examined, and at all times on the most advantageous terms for the good of the State.

All the clerical details of the Board have been given strict and careful attention by Arthur W. Morris, late Clerk of the Board, whose loss we now mourn. Mr. Morris was taken ill in July, this year, and after a brief illness died on the 22d of August following. Mr. Morris was painstaking and most attentive and accurate in his work. In his death the State lost one of its most efficient officers, one who was strictly conscientious in the duties devolving upon him, and whose work was satisfactory at all times.

Mr. Morris' place has been filled by Mr. P. B. Ellis, also in a competent manner.

All accounts have been kept in a systematic manner, in detail and by item, so as to be plain and specific, and showing the different claims approved, with the name of the claimant, date, amount, etc.

MONEYS AND SECURITIES.

The moneys and securities in the State treasury have been regularly counted and officially published once a month by the State Board of Examiners, in accordance with law (Compiled Laws 1900, sec. 2019).

AS A FURNISHING BOARD.

The State Board of Examiners as an ex officio Furnishing Board, in accordance with an Act approved March 2, 1877 (Compiled Laws of 1900, sec. 2029), for the purpose of procuring stationery for the State officers and Legislature, did, under such authorization, purchase stationery of Mrs. Sarah J. Fox of Carson City, Nevada, in accordance with a contract entered into with the said Mrs. S. J. Fox for the two years of 1901 and 1902.

An itemized statement of the stationery bought and used in the different State departments during that length of time will be found in the Stationery Account for 1901-1902 in this Report.

Bids were invited for furnishing stationery for the incoming Legislature and State officers. The same was duly advertised, and the contract for supplying said stationery was duly awarded by the Board upon the 20th of December, 1902, to Mrs. Sarah J. Fox of Carson City, Nevada.

Likewise the office of Clerk of the Supreme Court, in mailing transcripts, sending down remittiturs, reporting decisions, etc., which in that office the work has been largely increased owing to the law regulating appeals, approved March 18, 1895, Compiled Laws, sec. 3862, p. 796.

REMARKS.

The above receipts are turned into the State treasury and go into the General Fund in said treasury. The major portion of this money is acquired from the United States Government, from board, lodging and keeping of United States prisoners at our State Prison at the contract rate of 75 cents per day, for each prisoner. Said contract was entered into with the said Federal authorities by the Board of State Prison Commissioners of this State in 1895.

The State Prison Fund receives no benefit whatever from these receipts; but, on the contrary, the prison appropriation is drawn upon daily for the maintenance and keeping of the said wards of the Federal Government.

Though the Prison Fund is monthly diminished by a contract of this kind, still it is a profitable contract for the State, as can be judged by the amount of money turned into the General Fund of the State treasury.

BOARD OF STATE PRISON COMMISSIONERS.

The Board of State Prison Commissioners, consisting of the Governor, Secretary of State and Attorney-General, under the Statutes approved March 6, 1893, did on the third Wednesday in January, 1898, elect Mr. L. O. Henderson of Elko as Warden of the State Prison for the term of four years, to take effect from the 1st of February of said year, in accordance with said law. Mr. Henderson is serving his second term, he having formerly been elected Warden in January, 1895.

Said Prison Commissioners have duly inspected the State Prison from time to time, and, as a member of the Board, I take pleasure in attesting to the very efficient administration of Warden Henderson, who has maintained discipline in every instance, and has managed the prison on a basis more economical than has ever been conducted in the history of the institution.

STATE BOARD OF PRINTING COMMISSIONERS.

As Chairman and member of the State Board of Printing Commissioners, which consists of the State Treasurer, State Controller and Secretary of State, I desire to say that the work of this Board has been thorough and conscientious. All contracts for the furnishing of supplies, paper and printing material have always been given to the lowest resident bidder, and all claims and bills against the State Printing Office have been closely scrutinized and approved at correct figures, and all salaries of foreman, pressman, printers and other employees of the State Printing Department have always been approved by the Board at union wages.

Jonathan Doane, Deputy State Controller, the Clerk of the Board, has given the work close and careful attention.

The State Printing Office and Binding Department has been conducted in a most thorough, excellent and systematic manner by State Printer Andrew Maute, and his efficient foreman, Will U. Mackey.

The class of work that is annually turned out of this Department cannot be excelled by any Government or State printing establishment in the United States, and too much credit cannot be given State Printer Maute and Foreman Mackey for the results attained in this Department, which should be a matter of much pride to the people of this State.

BALLOT PAPER AND ELECTIONS.

In accordance with an Act of the Legislature, approved March 13, 1891, commonly known as the Australian Ballot Law, the Secretary of State is empowered and authorized to purchase and furnish the necessary ballot paper under that law that may be required by the different County Clerks in the different counties throughout the State. For this purpose an appropriation of $1,000 was made by the Legislature in 1895 to buy and freight said ballot paper for 1896, and for election expenses during that year. I used but $324 64 of said appropriation, and turned back into the Treasury a balance of $673 36. Upon my recommendation the Legislature of 1897 appropriated $400, out of which I used $360 95. In 1899, a like appropriation of $400 was made by the Legislature for the election of 1900, of which I used $389 24. Paper had materially advanced in price in 1900 and 1902, and the Legislature, recognizing that fact and the increase that would probably take place in the vote of 1902, made an appropriation of $450 for election expenses for said year. Notwithstanding the raise in paper already spoken of, I fortunately succeeded in making a contract price under the circumstances for a good quality of paper of Irwin, Hodson & Co. with the dandy roll water mark required by the statute. I thus had a sufficient quantity of such paper on hand to answer all the requirements of the County Clerks, and of the increased vote of the State at the last election.

I would suggest that the appropriation be $400, as it has been demonstrated that the said amount is sufficient to meet all the ordinary election expenses from this office.

ELECTION EXPENSES OF 1902.

1902.	Articles.	Amount.
Aug. 4	V. & T. R. R. Co., freight	$66 88

Oct. 4	Wells, Fargo & Co., expressage	30 86
Nov. 2	Telephone messages	75
	Total	$389 44
Comparison.
	Election expenses for 1894, from Controllor's books	$608 20
	Election expenses for 1896*	324 64
	Election expenses for 1898*	360 95
	Election expenses for 1900*	381 43
	Election expenses for 1902*	389 44

*The saving was effected largely upon the favorable terms secured in the purchase of ballot paper, and shows a saving to the State during the last four elections of 42 per cent.

STATUTES OF 1901.

Much pains were taken in preparing the Statutes of 1901. The Acts were immediately and duly certified to the State Printer upon their receipt in the office of Secretary of State. Work was hurried upon them in the State Printing Office with promptness and dispatch, and the Acts returned to this office for indexing and compiling. Much fault had heretofore been found by the legal profession with the crude manner and way in which the Statutes had been indexed prior to 1895. Extra work and time were consequently given in preparing proper and complete indices to the Statutes of 1895, 1897, 1899 and 1901, which have met with the approval of the public and Bar, in their fullness and simplicity.

The Statutes and Journals of 1901, like those of 1895-1899, were prepared, indexed and bound and ready for distribution at even an earlier date than 1895-1899, and also bound at a cheaper figure than any set of Statutes and Journals prior to 1895, as follows:

1901.
May 2	Binding 800 vols. Statutes 1901	$224 00
May 2	Binding 225 vols. Senate Journal 1901; 225 vols. Assembly Journal 1901; 100 vols. Appendix 1901	125 00
	Total	$349 00
Comparison.
	Cost of binding Statutes, etc., of 1891, from Controller's books	$564 85
	Cost of binding Statutes, etc., of 1893, from Controller's books	444 00
	Cost of binding Statutes, etc., of 1895 (see Secretary of State's Report, page 18)	318 00
	Cost of binding Statutes, etc., of 1897 (see Secretary of State's Report, page 21)	342 00
	Cost of binding Statutes, etc., of 1899	346 00
	Cost of binding Statutes, etc., of 1901	349 00

Making a saving in the cost of binding of over 34 per cent to the State during the last eight years.

ENROLLED LAWS.

In accordance with the law (General Statutes 1885, sec. 1929) I personally supervised the binding of the original Enrolled Laws and Resolutions of the Legislatures of 1895-1901 at the following figures:

1895—Althoff, Bahls & Co., binding 1895 Enrolled Laws in patent flexible back, half Morocco leather binding, and expense Secretary of State in attending to the same	$32 10
1897—J. B. McIntyre, binding 1897 Enrolled Laws in patent flexible backs, half Morocco leather binding, and expenses Secretary of State in attending to the same	32 10
1899—J. B. McIntyre, binding 1899 Enrolled Laws in patent flexible backs, half Morocco leather binding, and expenses Secretary of State in attending to the same	32 10
1901—J. B. McIntyre, binding 1901 Enrolled Laws in patent flexible backs, half Morocco leather binding, and expenses Secretary of State in attending to the same	32 10

It cost the State for binding the said original Enrolled Laws prior to 1895 an average of $92 50 each session, or nearly three times as much per session as during the past eight years.

BINDING.

I desire to say that in binding Statutes, Journals, Supreme Court Reports, Library books, and all work of that character appertaining to the different offices I represent, I have given such matters my strictest personal attention, and I have in all cases succeeded in benefiting the State by securing much lower rates for binding than has been done heretofore.

In the compilation of the laws of 1900 the bids for binding were so high that I was compelled to ignore them entirely, and necessitated my interviewing personally the bidders and other binderies in California, where I managed to let the contract for binding 790 volumes at 54 cents per volume, thus saving the State several hundred dollars.

COMPILED LAWS OF NEVADA OF 1900.

By an Act of the Legislature approved February 15, 1899, H. C. Cutting, Esq., was duly empowered and authorized to prepare an annotated and thorough compilation of the laws of this State.

The present volume, containing 1,075 pages, speaks for itself, and reflects much credit upon the compiler, Mr. Cutting. Fifteen hundred copies were printed in the State Printing Office, and 790 volumes were bound by Brown, Power & Co. of San Francisco at 54 cents per volume.

The work of the State Printing Office on the Compiled Laws demonstrates the efficiency of that department. The clear, uniform and elegant work done in printing the said laws cannot be surpassed, and should be a source of much gratification to the legal profession as well as to Superintendent of State Printing Maute.

The said laws are sold for six dollars per volume and distributed in conformity with law. (Statutes 1899, p. 19.)

RECOMMENDATION.

I earnestly recommend that steel cases be put in this office, as the office is badly cramped for want of room, and there is now no space available as all the cases that are in the office are filled to their fullest capacity.

POLITICAL DATA.

In Relation to the Territorial Government, Constitution and State Government of Nevada.

The first public meeting, in what is now Nevada, of which any record was kept, was held at "Mormon Station" (now Genoa), November 12, 1851. The object of this meeting was to organize a squatter government, and to adopt local rules for the government of the settlers and their property. The meeting agreed upon a petition to the National Congress for a Territorial Government. A second meeting was held November 19th, same year, and the next day a local form of government was adopted.

Carson county, Utah, was organized by the following Act:

An Act defining the boundaries of Carson county, and providing for the organization thereof.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Governor and Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah: That all that portion of the country bounded north by Desert county, east by the parallel of longitude 118° , south by the boundary line of this Territory, and west by California, is hereby included within the limits of Carson county, and until organized is attached to Millard county for election, revenue and judicial purposes.

SEC. 2. The Governor is hereby authorized to appoint a Probate Judge for said county, when he shall deem it expedient, and said Probate Judge, when appointed, shall proceed to organize said county, by dividing the county into precincts and causing an election to be held according to law, to fill the various county and precinct offices, and locate the county seat thereof.

W. RICHARDS,
President of the Council.

J. M. GRANT,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Approved January 17, 1854:

BRIGHAM YOUNG,
Governor of Utah Territory.

TERRITORY OF UTAH,
SECRETARY'S OFFICE. }

I, Elijah Sells, Secretary of Utah Territory, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true copy.

Witness my hand and the Great Seal of the Territory this 22d day of October, 1892.

ELIJAH SELLS,
Secretary of Utah Territory.

This embraced all of Washoe, Douglas, Lyon, Ormsby and Storey counties, the greater part of Esmeralda and Churchill counties, and a portion of Humboldt.

The first attempt at representation at Washington was made by electing James W. Crane as a delegate to represent the claims of the settlers to a Territorial Government. Crane having died, John J. Musser was elected his successor November 12, 1859.

On June 6, 1859, a mass meeting of delegates from the several districts was held, at which the 14th day of July, 1859, was fixed for holding an election for the purpose of electing delegates to a constitutional convention. Delegates so elected met at Genoa on the 18th day of the same month, and in a ten days' session adopted a declaration of rights and a constitution.

This constitution was submitted to the people September 1, 1859. The constitution was adopted, and Isaac Roop elected Governor, with a Legislature and other State officers. Roop was the only officer who attempted to qualify.

The Legislature met at Genoa on the 15th day of December, 1859, and adjourned to meet in July, 1860. They never met again.

John Cradlebaugh, one of the United States District Judges for Utah Territory, arrived at Genoa in the summer of 1859, and impaneled the first grand jury that ever met in what is now the State of Nevada.

The Territorial Legislature of 1862 passed an Act entitled "An Act to frame a Constitution and State Government for the State of Washoe," which was approved December 20, 1862, providing for an election on the first Wednesday in September, 1863, at which election the question of State Government or no State Government was submitted at the same time delegates were voted for as members of the convention. On the 2d day of November, 1863, the members elected to form a convention were called to order by Orion Clemens, Territorial Secretary, and the body was organized by the election of John W. North as President, and Wm. M. Gillespie as Secretary. This convention was in session thirty-two days, and adjourned on the 11th day of December, 1863. On the 19th day of January, 1864, the Constitution framed by this convention was submitted to a vote, and at the same time the following ticket was voted for for State officers:

For Representative in Congress—John B. Winters of Lyon county.
 For Governor—Miles N. Mitchell of Storey county.
 For Lieutenant-Governor—M. S. Thompson of Humboldt county.
 For Attorney-General—H. C. Worthington of Lander county.
 For Justices Supreme Court—J. B. Harmon of Storey county; M. D. Larrowe of Lander county; R. S. Mesick of Esmeralda county.
 For Clerk Supreme Court—Alfred Helm of Ormsby county.
 For Secretary of State—Orion Clemens of Ormsby county.
 For State Treasurer—W. B. Hickok of Lyon County.
 For State Controller—Edwin A. Sherman of Esmeralda county.
 For Superintendent of Public Instruction—A. F. White of Ormsby county.
 For State Printer—G. W. Bloor of Storey county.

The Constitution was overwhelmingly defeated, while the officers were elected, but found their honors empty because there were no offices to fill.

The question of Statehood was still agitated, particularly by aspiring politicians. A session of the Territorial Legislature was held in January and February, 1864, but no provision was made for another convention. On the 21st of March, 1864, the Congress of the United States passed an Act, the title of which reads: "An Act to enable the people of the Territory of Nevada to form a Constitution and State Government, and for the admission of such State into the Union on an equal footing with the original States."

Under this Congressional Act delegates to a convention were elected, and on the 4th day of July, 1864, met at Carson City, Nevada. The Constitution of 1863 was taken as a basis, and, after a session of twenty-three days, the present Constitution was formulated, differing in but few material features from that of 1863.

The personnel of this convention was as follows:

An Act of the Legislature of 1861 provided for a Territorial Seal, designed as follows:

Mountains with a stream of water coursing down their sides and falling on the overshot wheel of a quartz mill at the base. A miner leaning on his pick and upholding a United States flag with a motto expressing the two ideas of loyalty to the Union and the wealth to sustain it: Volens et Potens.

Several designs were made and submitted for a State Seal, none of which proved acceptable. The Legislature in 1866 passed an Act providing for "a Seal of State for the State of Nevada." It is described in the Act as follows: "The Great Seal of the State of Nevada," the design of which shall be as follows, to wit: In the foreground two large mountains, at the base of which, on the right, there shall be located a quartz mill, and on the left a tunnel penetrating the silver leads of the mountain, with a miner running out a carload of ore and a team loaded with ore for the mill. Immediately in the foreground there shall be emblems indicative of the agricultural resources of the State; a plow, a sheaf and a sickle; in the middle ground a train of railroad cars passing a mountain gorge; also a telegraph line extending along the line of the railroad. In the extreme background a range of snow-clad mountains, with the rising sun in the east; thirty-six stars to encircle the whole group in an outer circle, the words "The Great Seal of the State of Nevada," to be engraven, with these words for the motto of the State: "All for Our Country."

IN REVIEW

IN REVIEW.

In review, I desire to state that I entered upon my manifold duties upon the 8th day of January, 1895, and have endeavored to fulfill those duties in an honest and conscientious manner. Consolidation of the offices of Secretary of State, Clerk of the Supreme Court and State Librarian was something never before attempted, and is the only consolidation effected in the way of retrenchment and reform in State offices in Nevada. I was compelled to face the duties of three different offices that have always been under three different and separate heads.

My work in conducting the three offices in the past eight years demonstrates whether the consolidation has been a success or not in the way of efficiency and in the way of retrenchment and economy. I have succeeded in attending to all of these duties successfully by systematizing the work in the different departments under me. My deputy is in the one office of Secretary of State, the Library Clerk in the Library, and myself individually in the office of Clerk of the Supreme Court, where I perform the clerical work appertaining to the latter office in person, and am present at all sittings of the Supreme Bench, besides supervising the work in the other two departments just spoken of, and attending to my duties on the Board of Examiners and other State Boards of which I am a member.

In all, the work and duties of the three offices have run along smoothly and without friction.

SAVING.

In the matter of saving to the State in the consolidation of offices under me, it can be noted that the economy effected by such consolidation is very great. The salaries of several State officers were cut down, commencing January 8, 1895, to $2,400 per annum. Prior to that time and before the consolidation the expenses were as follows:

EXPENSES PER YEAR FOR EIGHT YEARS, 1887-1894, COMPARED WITH EXPENSES OF 1895-1902.

EXPENSES OF 1887-1894, PER YEAR.
Secretary of State, per year.....	$3,000 00
Deputy Secretary of State, per year	2,000 00
Lieutenant-Governor, as ex officio Adjutant-General and ex officio Librarian, received per annum $2,700. He was in person in the Library nine months of every year according to the figures of ex-Lieutenant-Governor Poujade, Librarian..	2,025 00
Clerk of the Supreme Court.....	2,400 00
Ex officio Supreme Court Reporter.....	600 00
 A total per year of.....	 $10,025 00
Making total expenditures for the eight years up to 1895	$80,100 00

CONTRA.

Under the consolidation taking effect January 8, 1895, of the said offices since that date under me, the expense to the State for conducting the same offices during the same length of time is as follows:

EXPENSES OF 1895-1902, PER YEAR.
Secretary of State, per year	$2,400 00
Deputy Secretary of State, per year	1,200 00
Library Clerk, per year	720 00
Clerk of Supreme Court, as ex officio Supreme Court Reporter..	600 00
Total	$4,920 00
For the eight years, up to 1902, inclusive	$37,560 00
Comparison.
Expense for 1887-1894, conducting the three said offices	$80,100 00
Expenses for 1895-1902, for conducting the same three offices	37,560 00
Balance saved the State under the consolidation to date	$42,540 00

Showing that it cost the State the sum of $80,100 paid out for conducting the said offices for eight years prior to 1895, as against $37,560 (less than one-half) for the last eight years for the same offices and during the same time, thus making a saving to the State, under the conditions, of $42,540 during my terms of office.

It will be noticed that the salary formerly paid to the Clerk of the Supreme Court, prior to 1895, is done away with, though the volume of work in that office has more than doubled. (See page 130, this Report.)

It will be noticed also that the combined salaries of the two deputies—one in the Secretary of State's office, and the Clerk of the Library—amounting in the aggregate to $160 per month, is less than the amount of $166 66 per month, formerly paid to the one deputy in the office of Secretary of State in 1887-1894.

REMARKS.

As has already been noted (page 35 of this Report) $5,096 66 more in cash has been turned into the State treasury from the office of Secretary of State during the past eight years of 1895-1902 than during the eight years previous to that time.

Also, in the Clerk's office of the Supreme Court $3,312 92 more in cash has been turned into the State Treasury during the same time, owing to the volume of business being taken care of in said office (page 132, this Report), making from the two said offices $8,409 58 more cash turned into the Treasury during my incumbency than during the eight years prior to that time, being a total of fees for 1895 to 1902 of $22,726 53 against $14,316 95 for 1887 to 1895.

Also, there is now on hand in the State Library Fund this 31st day of December, 1902, the sum of $5,363 24, applicable to the purchase of books, against $227 85 in the same fund January 8, 1895, notwithstanding that nearly $1,000 more money has been expended for the purchase of books during the past eight years than during the eight years previous.

I wish to say further that outside of my office, on pages 31 and 32 of this Report, will be found a statement of the money on hand in the State treasury, as counted by the State Board of Examiners. On January 5, 1903, there was in the State treasury $289,156 28 in coin, a State bond of $240,100, an irredeemable school bond of $380,000, and $900,000 in United States bonds drawing 4 per cent interest belonging to the School Fund. All going to show that the State of Nevada is on a better financial basis than any other State in the Union in proportion to its inhabitants, a fact that is not known to everyone.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Engene Howell.
