<sup>3</sup>The Legislature of 1877 abolished the office of State Printer (to take effect January 1, 1879) and state printing was done by contract in 1879 and 1880. (Stats. 1877, p. 161.) The contract system having proven unsatisfactory and detrimental to the interests of the State, the Legislature of 1879 reestablished the office under the name of "Superintendent of State Printing" (Stats. 1879, p. 138), and made an appropriation to purchase necessary materials.

<sup>4</sup>Appointed by Board of State Printing Commissioners, under Stats. 1879, p. 138, for the years 1881-1882, since which time, under the law, the Superintendent of State Printing has been elected by the people every four years, as is the case with all other state officers.

<sup>5</sup>Resigned November 9, 1868, and B. C. Whitman appointed to fill vacancy.

<sup>6</sup>Died April 21, 1867, and J. Neely Johnson appointed to fill vacancy.

<sup>7</sup>Resigned November 7, 1872, and C. H. Belknap appointed.
