Welcome to Las Vegas Events & Shows

This issue marks an exciting new partnership between Nevada Magazine (the publisher of Las Vegas Events & Shows) and Drive + Fly, the only tourism publication distributed at the McCarran International Airport Rent-A-Car Center.

The new Las Vegas Events & Shows puts an emphasis on the latest and greatest events and shows in Nevada's entertainment capital, while even more information can be found on our website, NevadaMagazine.com, as well as the city's premier events and shows app, which can be downloaded free at VegasTheApp.mobi.

Our goal is to let you know where to go and what to do in Las Vegas as conveniently as possible, and we hope that this partnership will do just that.

Enjoy your stay in Las Vegas.

BLUE MAN GROUP

MONTE CARLO BOUND

Blue Man Group, the international entertainment phenomenon, unveils its newest production complete with electrifying music, sensational technology, a captivating nightly procession, and its signature interactive audience experiences. The show opens inside Monte Carlo Resort and Casino on Wednesday, October 10.

The energy kicks off on Monte Carlo's casino floor with a dazzling procession of musical joy and luminescence, which can best be described as an energetic percussive parade designed by a mad scientist. The surging, intoxicating beat will fill the casino as Blue Man Group launches a Percussipede, a musical centipede of percussion instruments, musicians, robots, and pup pets co-created with world-renowned 3-D designer Michael Curry.

Each day, 45 minutes prior to the first show, a Blue Man groove will weave and shake its way through the casino – a musical celebration that will lure and entice unsuspecting visitors.

Event expands to include ARIA, Bellagio, MGM Grand, Mandalay Bay, and The Mirage

Food lovers will take over The Strip October 5-7 to celebrate FOOD & WINE All-Star Weekend. Following two successful years at ARIA Resort & Casino and Bellagio Resort & Casino, this year's roster of resorts has expanded to include MGM Grand Hotel & Casino, Mandalay Bay Resort & Casino, and The Mirage Hotel & Casino.

Kicking off Friday, October 5, the weekend will be hosted by FOOD & WINE's Gail Simmons along with a talented lineup of celebrity chef superstars, distinguished sommeliers, and sophisticated mixologists providing first-class interactive experiences, once-in-a-lifetime moments, and exceptional hospitality in a way that only the resorts and restaurants of MGM Resorts International know how to do.

"From established culinary masters to rising stars, FOOD & WINE All-Star Weekend showcases the best and brightest of the industry in what has become one of the world's top epicurean destinations," said MGM Resorts International's Chief Marketing Officer Bill Hornbuckle. "Not only will we provide access to supreme culinary talents, but our world-class resorts will ensure that each guest has a truly memorable experience."

The weekend promises a wide array of events sure to please even the most discerning dining connoisseur from lavish, multi-course meals to intimate cooking demonstrations including:

- The Mirage Pool's tropical elegance will serve as the backdrop for this year's All-Star Tasting when celebrity chefs Rick Moonen, Laurent Tourondel, and more join Simmons in a gastronomic gala showcasing the unrivaled cuisine of Vegas' top chefs.
- ARIA's stable of powerhouse chefs including Masa Takayama, Shawn McClain, Jean-Philippe Maury, Michael Mina, Julian Serrano, and Jean-Georges Vongerichten will join forces to create a one-of-a-kind meal served at Sage.
- Bellagio transforms its Grand Patio into a "farmhouse" setting as executive chefs Roy Ellamar of Sensi and Brett Smith of Zolo Grill, an award-winning southwestern restaurant in Boulder, Colorado, serve a lunch featuring seasonal ingredients harvested from their favorite farms.
- Joël Robuchon's MGM Grand restaurant, L'Atelier de Joël Robuchon, presents an intricate cooking demo and decadent lunch to guests. Hosted by executive chefs Claude Le-Tohic of Joël Robuchon Restaurant and Steve Benjamin of L'Atelier de Joël Robuchon, the pair will guide each guest through the preparation of two Joël Robuchon signature courses followed by a three-course lunch with wine pairings.
- At Mandalay Bay, celebrity chef Charlie Palmer of Aureole will guide an exclusive group of guests in an interactive cooking demonstration highlighting fall fare.

Check-In Service

Use Airport SpeedCheck Advance to check bags before coming to McCarran International Airport.***

Here's How It Works:

- 1 When traveling on participating airlines, visit any one of the seven Airport SpeedCheck Advance locations to check your baggage several hours prior to your scheduled flight.
- 2 Using Airport SpeedCheck Advance technology, Bags To Go agents tag and store your luggage, and present you with an airline boarding pass. Next, Bags To Go transports the luggage to McCarran to be screened by Transportation Security Administration agents, who screen the bags just as they would those checked at the airport. Bags are then passed on to their respective airlines to be loaded onto the appropriate outbound aircraft.
- 3 Skip the ticketing counters and advance to the security checkpoint and gate. You won't have to handle your bags again until you've arrived at your destination. What better way to leave Las Vegas in style?

*A service fee applies.
