THE ODDS ARE IN YOUR FAVOR

Every now and then you need to defy convention with a good dose of whoop it up, let your hair down and paint the town red. In Nevada, we pit Lady Luck and her late night shenanigans against Mother Nature and her untracked early morning glades. This winter, discover the stunning natural terrain of Lake Tahoe's 18 world-class resorts.

Welcome to Las Vegas Events & Shows

This issue continues an exciting new partnership between Nevada Magazine (the publisher of Las Vegas Events & Shows) and Drive + Fly, the only tourism publication distributed at the McCarran International Airport Rent-A-Car Center.

The new Las Vegas Events & Shows puts an emphasis on the latest and greatest events and shows in Nevada's entertainment capital, while even more information can be found on our website, NevadaMagazine.com, as well as the city's premier events and shows app, which can be downloaded free at VegasAnywhere.mobi.

Our goal is to let you know where to go and what to do in Las Vegas as conveniently as possible, and we hope that this partnership will do just that.

Enjoy your stay in Las Vegas.

ELVIS SLEPT HERE

Rebranded and redefined, the Las Vegas Hotel & Casino bridges nostalgia and new.

BY MATTHEW B. BROWN

Words such as “luxurious” and “world-class” get thrown around a lot in Las Vegas, especially in casino marketing. And the Las Vegas Hotel & Casino, or LVH—as it was renamed earlier this year—is definitely both, as I discovered during a stay there this summer.

But before you roll your eyes and think this is a story about another swanky Las Vegas hotel lacking history and tradition, think again. This unique property, which stands tall between the Strip and old downtown Las Vegas, has a fascinating story to tell.

The hotel burst on the scene on July 2, 1969 as the International, boasting 1,568 rooms and a 30,000-square-foot casino (both the world’s largest at the time). The property’s oceanic pool was enthusiastically promoted as the largest body of water in Southern Nevada next to Lake Mead.

Barbra Streisand christened the International showroom stage, but her musical-inspired act was not well received. That paved the way for a reenergized Elvis Presley, looking to resurrect his career, who made his highly anticipated debut on July 31, 1969. “The Elvis who strode onstage at the International... was an all-around entertainer fronting a rock band polished and magnified by horns and strings...,” wrote Mike Weatherford in the January/February 1995 Nevada Magazine feature story. “The show was galvanizing.” The 2,000-seat showroom was the largest ever built in Las Vegas, and Elvis would go on to perform 826 sold-out shows there until his last on December 12, 1976.

During our July media familiarization tour, we were escorted backstage to the dressing rooms where the likes of Alabama, Brooks & Dunn, and Kenny Chesney still have nameplates marking the generations of performances there over the years. The walls are also adorned with band posters and autographed pictures of hundreds of stars who have graced the casino-resort’s stage.

At the height of Elvis’ reign, in 1972, the property became the Las Vegas Hilton, which it remained for the next four decades. The hotel’s 30th-floor Imperial Suite—meant to be a retreat for all of its performers—became known as The Elvis Suite. The famous suite has been restored and resurrected as The Tuscany Sky Villa, which opened along with The Conrad Sky Villa and The Verona in the mid-1990s.

“Elvis slept here,” remarks tour leader and LVH Vice President of Hotel Operations Cami Christensen, pointing to The Tuscany Sky Villa fireplace, roughly the spot where The King of Rock ‘n’ Roll kept his bed.

“Elvis was constantly surrounded by his entourage, and life in the Hilton penthouse was a strange mixture of hedonism and hominess,” Weatherford writes. Singer Barry Manilow called the Conrad home during his Hilton show residency from 2005-09.

MATTHEW B. BROWN

The Verona Sky Villa

For a cool $15,000 a night, any of the three grandiose villas can be yours. Also on the 30th floor are 43 more reasonably priced rooms that complete the Classic Suites Collection, if you're looking to splurge. Otherwise, you'll have to make friends with well-to-do groups such as "the rancheros," who reportedly occupy all three rooms each year during December's National Finals Rodeo. If these LVH walls could talk...

Fortunately, at the property's Benihana restaurant, "Chef Elvis" does the talking—and singing—for you. A chef at the restaurant for 37 years, going back to the Hilton's early days, Toy Tomme has served Elvis, Paris Hilton, and Michael Jackson to name a few. After our appetites were sated by the Benihana Special—Hibachi Steak with Cold Water Lobster Tail—the energetic and exuberant Tomme, now head chef, told us members of the media how he once spilled food on a young Hilton, and how Hilton still talks about it as if it was one of the more traumatic events of her life. He told more humorous stories—for instance, calling the King of Pop's longhaired son "she"—in between strumming his acoustic guitar and belting out classic Elvis tunes such as "Blue Suede Shoes" and "His Latest Flame."

After enjoying our meal and the entertainment at Benihana, we were treated to live music and a private cabana at the "Old School by the Pool" party, held every Friday from 7 to 10 p.m. on the third-floor pool deck during the summer months.

These are a few of the highlights of my stay, but LVH can satisfy a broad range of travelers' interests. Its proximity to the Las Vegas Convention Center and its designation as a Las Vegas Monorail station appeal to convention-goers as well as tourists. The Race and Sports Superbook, the largest in the world with a seating capacity of almost 400, is nearly as spacious as the main casino. The property also features a pool and spa, tennis courts, two shopping promenades, a hair salon, and a car rental and business center.

TIM MCGRAW AND FAITH HILL

BRING "SOUL2SOUL"
TO THE VENETIAN

VEGAS GOES COUNTRY

Collectively, Tim McGraw and Faith Hill have sold 70 million albums and won eight Grammy Awards. Starting in December, country music's most famous couple will bring its Soul2Soul act to The Venetian Las Vegas for a limited engagement through April 2013.

The show—what The Venetian has called the biggest musical event in its history—officially opens December 7 in the 1,815-seat Venetian Theater. The event will mark the first time in six years that McGraw and Hill have performed together in the United States, promising country-music fans a whole new concert experience.

"We are creating a show that will be completely different from what we've done before—and might ever do again," McGraw and Hill said in August. "In arenas and stadiums, you're always faced with the challenge of finding ways to make people feel closer to the action... Now everyone will be close, so it opens up all kinds of creative possibilities, and we're looking forward to exploring those so that we can really give our fans something truly special."

McGraw and Hill have been dominating the music charts since the early '90s and began performing together in 2000 in their record-breaking original Soul2Soul tour, becoming that year's top-grossing U.S. tour. Their success continued in 2006 when Soul2Soul II became the highest-grossing country music tour of all time.

Not to be outdone by Tim McGraw and Faith Hill, Twain makes her much-anticipated return (the show was announced in summer 2011) to the stage at The Colosseum at Caesars Palace on December 1. "SHANIA: STILL THE ONE" will feature the hits that have made Twain the top-selling female country artist of all time, with more than 57 million albums sold in the U.S. and Canada. Twain joins mega-stars Celine Dion, Elton John, and Rod Stewart, who also have ongoing shows at The Colosseum.

ZARKANA DEBUTS

ARIA WELCOMES NEWEST CIRQUE PRODUCTION

Move over Elvis. There's a new Cirque du Soleil show in town. Replacing "Viva Elvis" at the Aria at CityCenter in Las Vegas is "Zarkana." Scheduled to premier Thursday, November 1, "Zarkana" is an acrobatic rock experience blending circus arts with the surreal to create a world where physical virtuosity rubs shoulders with the strange. Described as a visual vortex, the show is set in a twisted musical and acrobatic fantasy universe where, little by little, chaos and craziness give way to a true celebration.

The diverse cast of more than 75 international artists transports the audience into a fantastical and suspenseful world, blurring the boundaries between the real and imaginary.

PALMS EXPANDS CULINARY OFFERINGS

Palms Casino Resort, currently underway with the first phase of a property-wide transformation, recently announced the addition of XISHI, a pan-Asian restaurant, to its evolving dining landscape. XISHI (pronounced "zai-she") is a nod to the feminine pronoun "she" and will offer traditional and contemporary Asian dishes in a modern vibe-driven space. The ONE Group, also behind STK and known for its high-energy concepts, is expected to open the venue in December. palms.com/renovation, 866-725-6773

THE COSMOPOLITAN STEAKHOUSE

DINING WITH A DJ: ONLY IN LAS VEGAS

BY CHARLIE JOHNSTON

My first thought upon entering STK at The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas is "this place is a little loud." I can't help it. I was raised in the tradition of quiet, stuffy, old steakhouses. STK has a DJ. STK isn't stuffy.

STK is filled with table after table of sexy young patrons who seem to be on the verge of dancing at any minute. What the steakhouse has in common with its more conventional brethren, though, are butter-tender, melt-in-your-mouth cuts of beef and comfortably intimate spaces. The restaurant is a microcosm of the resort it inhabits: chic, young, and hip, with a keen attention to subtle contemporary twists on classic standbys.

With outposts in New York City, Miami, and Los Angeles, STK is a new-style Las Vegas steakhouse from The ONE Group and Executive Chef Stephen Hopcraft. The bustling bar scene is the centerpiece, the menu is inspired, and the atmosphere is relaxed with a sexy vibe.

WORLD FOOD CHAMPIONSHIPS

SIN CITY LANDS FOUR-DAY FOOD FESTIVAL

The World Food Championships has partnered with Bally's Las Vegas as the official host of the four-day food festival and cooking competition. Additional events will take place at Paris Las Vegas and Caesars Palace. Television's Adam Richman (right) will play host to the festivities November 1-4.

The alliance will transform the corner of Las Vegas Boulevard and Flamingo Boulevard into a food epicenter with unrivaled competition and culinary experiences, when food champions from across the United States compete for fame and fortune.

With a total prize pot of $300,000, the World Food Championships feature seven categories: BBQ, Chili, Burger, Sandwich, Champion's Challenge, Side Dish, and Chef's Challenge. Each of the seven category competitions will take place at Bally's, November 2-3. Throughout the competitions, several People's Choice and VIP opportunities will occur near the Strip and at Paris. On November 4, the ultimate food battle, where each of the champions from the seven categories will go head-to-head for the main prize purse, will occur in front of the iconic Caesars Palace.

GLITTERING LIGHTS

LAS VEGAS MOTOR SPEEDWAY CONTINUES SPECTACULAR HOLIDAY TRADITION

Glittering Lights, the holiday drive-through spectacular, brightens Las Vegas Motor Speedway with the world's largest light tunnel and more than 450 animated light displays along a 2.5-mile racetrack.

This season, Glittering Lights is expanding with more displays that include a NASCAR scene and Avenue of Trees. The largest regional holiday light show is all LED, a more energy-efficient way to entertain Las Vegas nightly from November 16 through Jan. 6, 2013. "Visitors will be able to enjoy the festivities from the warmth and comfort of their vehicles," says Shannon Bentham, co-founder of Ivory Star Productions, which oversees the event.

The Avenue of Trees showcases more than 55 charities with custom dedication signs and trees decorated by each charity. Speedway Children's Charities receives a portion of ticket sales and provides funding for hundreds of children's charities throughout Southern Nevada. Goodwill of Southern Nevada will provide $2 off admission with a donation of gently used items at any of the 30-plus sites in Southern Nevada or at the gates of Glittering Lights.

Check-In Service

Use Airport SpeedCheck Advance to check bags before coming to McCarran International Airport.*

Here's How It Works:

- 1 When traveling on participating airlines, visit any one of the seven Airport SpeedCheck Advance locations to check your baggage several hours prior to your scheduled flight.
- 2 Using Airport SpeedCheck Advance technology, Bags To Go agents tag and store your luggage, and present you with an airline boarding pass. Next, Bags To Go transports the luggage to McCarran to be screened by Transportation Security Administration agents, who screen the bags just as they would those checked at the airport. Bags are then passed on to their respective airlines to be loaded onto the appropriate outbound aircraft.
- 3 Skip the ticketing counters and advance to the security checkpoint and gate. You won't have to handle your bags again until you've arrived at your destination. What better way to leave Las Vegas in style?

KILLER NEW YEAR'S EVE SHOWS

The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas kicks off New Year's Eve weekend with two performances from The Killers, December 28-29. The band returns to Las Vegas to perform together in their hometown for the first time in more than three years.

Both shows will begin at 9 p.m. inside The Chelsea at The Cosmopolitan. General admission tickets start at $86; premium tickets are $125 (which include an open bar) plus applicable taxes and service charges. A limited number of VIP tables are also available and feature a premium viewing area and bottle service. Tables can be reserved by calling 702-698-7778 or e-mailing nightlifemarketing@cosmopolitanlasvegas.com. The Killers is an all-ages show, but guests must be 21 or older to purchase a table or package.
