OVERNIGHT CABINS
& MUCH MORE!

Come and explore Grand Canyon West, the closest Grand Canyon destination to Las Vegas, just 120 miles east of the city. Plan a day visit or an overnight stay in the cabins at the Hualapai Ranch or the Hualapai Lodge on Historic Route 66.

Spread over 9000 acres of the Grand Canyon's West Rim, Grand Canyon West is the only place in the Canyon where you can access a boat ride on the Colorado River via helicopter and is home to the Grand Canyon Skywalk, a glass walkway 4000 feet above the canyon floor. Other attractions include: the Native American Village with authentic dwellings of multiple tribes and live Native American performances; and the Hualapai Ranch, a western town with cowboy entertainment, horseback riding, wagon rides and overnight cabins facing the Canyon rim.

Private vehicles are welcome or all inclusive tours are available from Las Vegas by plane, helicopter, coach and SUV. Grand Canyon West and The Hualapai Lodge are open daily all year, while the Hualapai River Runners, the only one-day whitewater rafting trip through the Grand Canyon, operates March – October.

STRIP!

An NYC Classic
Eatery Lands in Planet Hollywood

Special to Las Vegas Events & Shows by Barbara J. Nosek

Well now, what's your pleasure. Is it to dine on the world famous Las Vegas Strip? Is it to have an excellent rendition of the steak of the same name. Or is it [we blush] to gaze upon some tastefully naughty photos from the Studio Manasse collection, notable for capturing the erotic side of cabaret life and its burlesque stars of the 1930s?

But why choose when you can have it all? Where? The answer is in the name, and that would be Strip House at Planet Hollywood.

At the entrance, you're still in the realm of color and buzz, with in fact a panoramic view of the casino floor from this second floor vantage point. But once inside, it's a different world indeed.

Here, all is subdued and yet with an electric undercurrent. The senses tune into a vibe that if not bordello, is certainly boudoir.

Illumination emanates mainly from the backlit photos and parlor lamps, and in turn the soft glow they coax from the crisp white tablecloths. That all plays nicely against the red on red that's virtually everywhere else, from the walls to the padded booths to the back-hugging chairs to the plushy couches in the lounge.

And then there are . . . the aromas. The décor, well-crafted as it is, tends to fade from sight once the plates start arriving from executive chef John Schenk's kitchen.

Steak rules of course, with the well-charred title cut the star of the show at either 16 oz. or 20 oz. bone-in. The broiler also works its magic with filets, ribeyes, veal chops, lobster, and Colorado rack of lamb.

Sides, happily, are also quite a specialty here. The steakhouse classic, creamed spinach, goes upmarket with black truffle garnish. Potatoes are especially revered whether traditionally baked or whipped, or crisped in goose fat, or married with garlic and herbs, or shredded and cheese-topped Romanoff style.

But the proprietary prep is Ripped Potatoes, the baked and torn and fried and seasoned and garnished and so delectable creation of chef Schenk. In fact this "clever side or appetizer" as they called it was recently showcased in the professional chef online newsletter "ProChef Smart Brief."

Other highlights: the house cured beef jerky with grilled tomatoes and fried onions, Strip House roasted bacon with baby arugula and Russian dressing, and great starters to share. And no matter how much you indulge in these opening rounds, go for a big finish with the must-see-it-to-believe-it 24 layer chocolate cake.

The original Strip House location is in New York City. Make dinner reservations nightly in Las Vegas at 702.737.5200.

NOBU Opens at Caesars

Boutique Hotel with a Far East Flair Arrives on The Strip

Caesars Palace and Nobu Hospitality developed the world's first Nobu Hotel, a boutique hotel within the larger destination resort that opened February 2013. The innovative concept features the largest Nobu restaurant and lounge.

In Nobu's first hotel project, leading the way as the first celebrity chef branded hotel venture, David Rockwell and his firm led the overall interior design for the hotel, including all the guest rooms, suites and common areas, as well as the adjoining restaurant and lounge. Incorporating his passion and decades-long history with the Nobu brand, Rockwell has created stylish interiors showcasing natural materials fused with Nobu's signature Japanese elegance, designed to convey an extension of the fun and energetic Nobu lifestyle.

Complementing the designs of organic and Japanese elements, furniture reflects the influence of George Nakashima and natural forms. Lantern like standing lamps luminous accents. Japanese inspired pillows in vibrant colors adorn the couches. Live edge wood coffee tables and grass cloth wall coverings reinforce a textured, natural aesthetic. The brown and beige toned carpet resembles sand. All rooms have Japanese artwork incorporating traditional prints and expressionist graffiti-like forms selected by Chef Nobu.

Accommodations

181 rooms and suites, 117 King rooms, 46 Double Queen rooms and 18 suites. KING ROOMS include California king bed with luxury Fili D'oro Italian linens, Nature Bisse amenities, 55-inch television, iPad docking station, minibar curated by Chef Nobu, access to 24-hour in-room dining.

Exclusive Guest Amenities

Priority reservations and VIP access to Nobu Caesars Palace. VIP access to Pure nightclub, exclusive in-room iPad docking station, Exclusive Nobu Hotel Caesars app, Nobu's signature hot tea served complimentary in-room upon arrival, deluxe bath amenities by Nature Bisse, turndown service with exclusive pillow menu and scented pillow mist, complimentary valet and covered parking and 24 hour access to Nobu's first-ever in-room dining menu.

Restaurant

The Las Vegas location is the largest Nobu Restaurant in the world. The design is based on the Japanese notion of wabi sabi, a design aesthetic of simplicity, evocative transience and beauty in unexpected and natural rawness.

Those Were The Days My Friends

Special to Las Vegas Events & Shows by Barbara J. Nosek

Both longtime residents and longtime visitors cast fond backward glances at those days, at "Vegas as it used to be." Whether sharply accurate or burnished by the passage of time, those golden memories preserve the spirit of Las Vegas PC, or Pre-Corporation.

Never mind that those conglomerates have brought to town a bounty of fine restaurants, diverse entertainment and first class shopping. The nostalgic crowd still misses what isn't here anymore: first name basis execs, parking lots, cheap or even free buffets, liberal comps, liberal markers, cigarettes on the gaming tables, the occasional showroom star dealing at those tables, glamorously garbed nightfolks, the "colorful" characters that ran the places, and on a related note: hmmm, very few casino robberies.

While much of that is surely relegated to the pages of Las Vegas lore, some vestiges just as surely remain. The town's unique history can be revisited at the Mob Museum, at the Nevada State Museum in Springs Preserve, and in countless library books. And, even better, relived in these ever-popular and still standing "Old Vegas" restaurants...

MICHAEL'S

Born over 30 years ago at Barbary Coast [then Bill's, next tba], this upscale dining room followed its creator Michael Gaughan to his new South Point in 2005. Thus, beloved traditions still beckon, the spectacular [and un-menus] iced seafood appetizer, large charred steaks, creamed mushrooms, comp fruit and chocolate, and of course first class service. 702.796.7111 southpointcasino.com

ANDRE'S

Proprietor Andre Rochat, an original LV celeb chef and local pioneer in offering genuine French cuisine, eventually shuttered his original 6th St location and brought his continental fare and flair to Andre's at Monte Carlo [702.730.7777] and Alize at Palms [702.942.7777]. All in all 32 years in biz, and the reason is delectably evident on every plate montecarlo.com palms.com

PAMPLEMOUSSE

Opened in 1976, this other French food forerunner is also the work of a notable chef/proprietor. Georges La Forge's cozy cottage on east Sahara was to be a partnership with Bobby Darin who actually named the restaurant. Along the way it's garnered top awards and today retains its yesteryear charm and remains a celeb magnet. 702.733.2066 pamplemousserestaurant.com

GOLDEN STEER

At "age" 54 the reigning grand dame, the epitome of Old Vegas from its parlor-like lounge, to its warrens of tucked leather booths and Western artifacts, to its throwback menu featuring, e.g., oysters Rockefeller, Caesars salad, Lyonnaise potatoes, and Chateaubriand, plus classic cocktails. A biz booster back when: for every "suspicious" patron, a counterpart FBI agent. 702.384.4470 goldensteersteakhouseasvegas.com

OSAKA

And here is the valley's pioneer in Japanese restaurants, opening its doors in 1967 on west Sahara [today another on S. Eastern]. And it didn't hold back, using from the git-go traditional cooking styles plus then-exotic ingredients. Its appeal and success is measured in both longevity and awards, both locally and from the native land. 702.876.4988 osakajapanesebistro.com

PIERO'S

A Las Vegas classic, it's been a fave for over 30 years of locals and visitors and especially conventioners since it moved from its original Karen location to Convention Center Drive. It claims fame via its since-day-one menu, legendary Italian dishes, notable [and sometimes notorious] clientele, and vintage setting that served as a scene in the movie "Casino." 702.369.2305 pierocuisine.com
