A STEP BACK INTO THE OLD WEST.

GHOST TOWNS & GUNFIGHTERS

[BEATTY / RHYOLITE] From old west shootouts along the streets of Beatty to the desolate silence of Rhyolite Ghost Town, you'll feel as if you've stepped back in time, to the days when outlaws like Billy the Kid ran a muck. The gunslingers that walk these streets today are just having fun, and while reenactments of old west shootouts are a daily occurrence, you'll find nothing but friendly folks and plenty of adventure to be had.

Great Basin National Park

Eureka Opera House

Fernley

Pyramid Lake, near the town of Fernley, covers 125,000 acres, making it one of the largest natural lakes in the state of Nevada. It's also home to the famous Lahontan Cutthroat Trout that grow to world-record sizes.

Dayton

Fort Churchill State Historic Park, near Dayton, was built in 1861 to provide protection for early settlers. Visitors can enjoy historic and environmental education, hiking, camping, picnicking, and photography.

Fallon

Surrounded by the Lahontan Valley Wetlands, one of the most significant wetland systems in the American West that includes the Stillwater Wildlife Refuge, Fallon is a birdwatcher's paradise in the spring and a mecca for waterfowl hunters in the fall.

Austin

Stokes Castle near Austin is an exact replica of a tower outside of Rome, Italy, and was built out of hand-hewn native granite. The castle was built in 1897 for Anson Phelps Stokes, an eastern financier who had mining interests in the Austin area.

Eureka

Built in 1880, the Eureka Opera House was a movie theater in the 1940s, then stood idle until Eureka County purchased and restored it in 1993. The Eureka Opera House now serves as a full service convention center and cultural arts center.

Ely

In Ely, the Nevada Northern Railway harkens back to a time when the iron horse ruled the rails! Today, this National Historic Landmark offers extraordinary train rides, tours, an overnight in a caboose and the opportunity to BE the Engineer and operate a steam locomotive.

Great Basin National Park

Great Basin National Park is home to Wheeler Peak, the highest mountain located entirely in Nevada. Also featured within the park is Lehman Caves, a beautiful marble cave system ornately decorated with stalactites, stalagmites, helictites, flowstone, popcorn, and shield formations.

MAMMA MIA!

DANCING QUEENS HIT THE STAGE
AT THE TROPICANA.

As one of the most critically acclaimed and successful musicals of all time, Mamma Mia! celebrates its jubilant return to the Strip with new performances beginning May 8 at The New Tropicana Resort in Las Vegas. Performances take place in the state-of-the-art Tropicana Theater, offering up a tribute to the classic ABBA songs including “Dancing Queen,” “The Winner Takes It All,” “Money, Money, Money” and “Take a Chance on Me.”

After being viewed by more than 54 million worldwide and celebrating more than 10 years as a Broadway favorite, Mamma Mia! has solidified its existence as a classic musical. The iconic songs are composed by Benny Andersson and Björn Ulvaeus, former members of ABBA, and written by British playwright Catherine Johnson.

Special ticket packages are available for a two- or three-night stay at the Tropicana and include two Mamma Mia! show tickets with orchestra or mezzanine seating.

Guns n' Roses returns to The Joint inside Hard Rock Hotel & Casino for their encore residency, No Trickery! An Evening of Destruction. From May 21 through June 7, the group is set to perform nine raw and gritty rock shows that allow fans to get an up-close view while the group performs everything from its greatest hits to a few lesser-known tracks.

Appetite for Democracy, Guns n' Roses' successful first residency, debuted at the Hard Rock in 2012 and featured a jam-packed set list, pyrotechnics, and an electric stage display. The group, founded by front man Axl Rose, aims to leave fans in awe once again, promising a bigger and better show than ever before.

SANDBAR SUMMER CONCERT SERIES

POOLSIDE VENUE BRINGS BIG NAMES TO LAS VEGAS.

PLAN YOUR TRIP

Sandbar Summer Concert Series
Red Rock Resort
11011 W. Charleston Blvd.
Las Vegas, NV 89135
redrocklasvegas.com, 702-797-7777

This summer, the Sandbar Summer Concert Series will return to the Sandbar poolside venue. The outdoor concert series welcomes the summer with performances by The Fray, Lifehouse, Kansas, and more.

With a remarkable concert lineup and the opportunity to dip your toes into one of the most spectacular pools in the Las Vegas valley, the Sandbar Summer Concert Series offers a live music experience unlike any other. The Sandbar Summer Concert Series schedule includes:

Saturday, May 3 Lifehouse

Lifehouse came to mainstream prominence with the 2001 hit single “Hanging By a Moment” from their debut studio album “No Name Face.” The band’s success continued with their albums “Stanley Climbfall,” “Lifehouse,” “Who We Are,” “Smoke and Mirrors,” and “Almeria.” Lifehouse has sold more than 15 million singles and albums worldwide.

Tickets are $39 for standing room only and $79 for reserved seating.

Saturday, May 17 Kansas

Celebrating their 40th year as a band, Kansas was discovered by Wally Gold in 1974. The little band from Topeka has since produced eight gold albums, three sextuple-platinum albums (“Leftoverture,” “Point of Know Return,” and “Best of Kansas”), one platinum live album (“Two for the Show”), and the gold-certified singles, “Dust in the Wind” and “Carry On My Wayward Son.”

Tickets are $39 for standing room only and $69 for reserved seating.

Saturday, May 31 The Fray

Founded by former schoolmates Isaac Slade and Joe King, The Fray achieved early success with the singles “Over My Head (Cable Car)” and “How to Save a Life” from their double platinum debut album of the same name.

Tickets are $49 for standing room only and $99 for reserved seating.

Visit redrocklasvegas.com for more summer concerts.

VEGAS UNCORK'D BY BON APPÉTIT

FOODIE FESTIVAL BRINGS STAR CHEFS TO SIN CITY.

The eighth annual Vegas Uncork'd by Bon Appétit, May 8-11, is bigger than ever with more resorts, chefs, events, and guests than ever before. Tickets to eight new events are on sale now, including a collaborative dinner with Bobby Flay and Giada de Laurentiis; lunch with Thomas Keller; celebrity golf; Burgers, Beers, & Boozy Shakes with Mario Batali; and a first-ever "Live Like A High-Roller" MGM Grand exclusive package. A total of 31 events are now confirmed to take place at ARIA, Bellagio, Caesars Palace, MGM Grand, and The Venetian.

Here are a few of the scheduled events:

When Stars Align: Master Series Dinner with Bobby Flay & Giada de Laurentiis, Thursday, May 8, at 6:00 PM:

The Master Series Dinner with Bobby Flay is back by popular demand, but this time with a very special, never-been-done-before twist: Giada de Laurentiis. Together at Chef Flay's MESA Grill at Caesars Palace, the two celebrity chefs come together to craft a special menu of MESA favorites as well as reveal courses from Giada's new restaurant. $450 in advance.

Burgers, Beers, & Boozy Shakes: An After-Party with Chef Mario Batali, Thursday, May 8, at 10:30 PM:

Keep the fête fueled after The Night Market: East Meets West with this flavorful late-night after-party hosted by Chef Mario Batali at new Las Vegas restaurant, B&B Burger & Beer at The Venetian. Guests can snack on comfort foods such as gourmet burgers and wash it down with house brews and boozy Aversa milkshakes. $85 in advance.

Baking with The Boss, Friday, May, 9, at 2:00 PM:

Step into an interactive experience with Buddy Valastro, the Cake Boss himself, at Buddy V's Ristorante at The Venetian. Enjoy Prosecco and specialty cocktails, a sampling of savory dishes, and sweet treats as Buddy reveals his baking tips during a live demonstration. Meet Buddy and walk away with a special gift.

Mario Batali Foundation Swing Session Las Vegas Celebrity Golf Classic, Saturday, May 10:

Hit the links with Chef Mario Batali, Bon Appétit Editor in Chief, Adam Rapoport, and other celebrities and A-list chefs for the ultimate gastronomic golf event, benefiting the Mario Batali Foundation. Eat, drink, and swing your way through a memorable day of golf and culinary greatness at the prestigious Cascata golf course, followed by a beef tasting at Mario Batali's Italian Steakhouse, Carnevino, at The Palazzo. Prices vary.

FLOUR & BARLEY

BRICK OVEN PIZZERIA HEATS UP THE LINQ.

Block 16 Hospitality—the innovative team behind a long and growing list of Las Vegas’ hottest restaurants—has announced the opening of Flour & Barley Brick Oven Pizza in The LINQ, the city’s newest shopping, dining, and entertainment district. Flour & Barley Brick Oven Pizza offers guests a unique spin on a pizzeria eatery, with a creative menu that includes individual brick oven-style pizzas, Italian-inspired appetizers, pasta dishes, Panini’s, and salads. The pizzeria also features handcrafted cocktails as well as an extensive beer selection with seasonal beers and wines on draft.

“We created Flour & Barley to be the perfect complement to the electric atmosphere of The LINQ,” says Billy Richardson, founding partner of Block 16 Hospitality. “Flour & Barley is a destination spot for anyone in search of delicious wood-fired pizzas, creative menu items, a fantastic beer and wine selection, and a place to soak up the excitement of The LINQ.”

Renown chef and Block 16 Director of Culinary Operations Anthony Meidenbauer, developed Flour & Barley’s inventive menu that goes beyond standard pizza offerings. The menu spotlights high-quality ingredients including pizzas made with All Trumps flour, San Marzano tomatoes, whole milk mozzarella, and house-made and unique toppings including fennel sausage, Calabrian chili, roasted cauliflower, prosciutto cotto, and more.

Designed as a rustic sports bar, the 3,800-square-foot pizzeria is adorned with a natural wood and brick interior, a marble bar top, and marble tabletops, complemented by vintage posters and classic black-and-white sports photography. The restaurant also features a 1,200-square-foot patio opening to The LINQ’s central plaza, and a to-go window serving fresh-made slices, making it well situated to serve guests of The LINQ’s various venues and the High Roller observation wheel.

Nothing But Extraordinary.

From our vistas to our events, there's nothing ordinary about Cowboy Country.

We are known for our rugged mountains, great outdoor adventures, and cowboy heritage. That is what makes Cowboy Country, in Northern Nevada, so extraordinary. We have amazing things to do all year long, and the best part... we're just a short drive from California, Oregon, Utah, and Idaho.

From rodeos to Burning Man, Basque festivals to fishing, casinos to golf greens, there's an extraordinary vacation waiting for you.

*Plan your trip today.

A NIGHT IN THE COUNTRY

Lyon County Fairgrounds, Yerington
July 24-26
nightinthecountry.org, 775-463-5114

With a lineup that includes Brantley Gilbert and Little Big Town, its no wonder this two-day country music festival is set to sell out again as it has done in recent years. 2014 marks the 13th year that the Boys and Girls Club of Mason Valley will produce this fundraising event, with an expected attendance of 12,500 this year.

Two-day general admission tickets are still available, but won't be for long. So be sure to get them before they're gone, y'all!

LANDSAILING WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

14TH ANNUAL COMPETITION PICKS UP SPEED NEAR AUSTIN.

On July 12-19, NALSA (North American Landsailing Association) is hosting the FISLY-NALSA 14th Landsailing World Championship 2014 at Smith Creek Playa, located in a beautiful valley in the high desert near the town of Austin. The event features skilled sailors in high-tech machines that reach speeds of up to 100 mph racing for titles in several different categories. Participants are active, thrill-seeking individuals and innovators who enjoy the sport in coastal, urban, and desert dry lake settings.

Smith Creek Playa racecourse is very wide compared to the typical beach racecourse, offering unique opportunities. The race committee can optimize the length and depth of the “starting box,” in which the mini yachts circulate during the timed countdown to the start. “We believe Smith Creek’s size offers us the opportunity to have the best big-fleet starts ever held for the 5.6 Mini Class,” says Dennis Bassano, president of NALSA.

NALSA previously hosted the 2002 World Championships in southern Nevada. Like the 2002 event, the 2014 World Championship is expected to draw competitors from France, Germany, Belgium, the United Kingdom, Chile, Argentina, Australia, New Zealand, and more. Participants compete in six or more classes of vehicles, ranging from simple tube-frame landsailers to exotic streamlined carbon fiber machines, some with wing sails like the current America’s Cup catamarans.

As one of the event’s most exciting classes, the international 5.6 Mini land yacht class is relatively new and has deceptively simple design rules that allow a lot of innovation. Interestingly, the rules do not specify how the Mini races will start. The vehicles are small and maneuverable enough, however, that most Mini regattas now feature rolling starts, which is very unusual in land yachting. Moreover, the class is growing rapidly worldwide, resulting in large fleets. These big-fleet rolling starts will be featured during the first three days of the FISLY-NALSA 14th Landsailing World Championship.

BBQ, BREWS, AND BLUES

19TH ANNUAL FESTIVAL RETURNS TO THE ELDORADO.

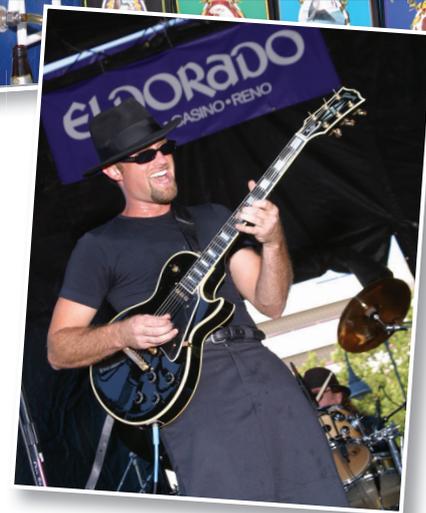

Fire up the grills, tap the kegs, and crank up the tunes for Reno's best summer kick-off party. The Great Eldorado BBQ, Brews, and Blues Festival is equal parts barbecue block party, micro-brew tasting event and music festival with two stages featuring non-stop rock and blues.

Past headliners include Coco Montoya, Lee Rocker of the Stray Cats, Blood Sweat & Tears, Greg Kihn Band, The Fabulous Thunderbirds, Canned Heat, and Tommy Castro and The Painkillers.

Attendees can wash down the hot rock and blues with some cool brews. A selection of the Eldorado's own Brew Brothers' custom microbrews are on tap along with choices from more than 40 microbreweries from around the world. The $30 daily or $50 weekend tasting package includes an eight ounce souvenir cup and unlimited tastings during the festival.

Nothing says summer like barbecue, and the Eldorado has the perfect complement to the festival's variety of microbrews: grilled chicken, ribs, sausage and more, fresh from the outdoor grill. Food booths will line Virginia Street serving a variety of tasty options for purchase.

There's no better way to celebrate summer than with the 19th Annual Great Eldorado BBQ, Brews, and Blues Festival, set for Friday, June 20 from 2 to 8 p.m. and Saturday, June 21 from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m.

The Consolidated Virginia Mine in Virginia City, site of the Big Bonanza of the 1870s.
In 1867, the Consolidated Virginia Mining Company began operations in Virginia City, but did not immediately achieve success. In 1871, James Flood—in partnership with John Mackay, James Fair, and William O'Brien—bought stock in Consolidated Virginia, forming the Bonanza Firm. Eventually, the firm bought the land owned by Consolidated Virginia. They hit the "Big Bonanza" in 1875, extracting more than $100 million in silver ore over the next nine years.

HELLDORADO DAYS

DEEP-ROOTED NEVADA TRADITION CELEBRATES ITS 80TH YEAR.

From May 14-18, Helldorado Days will deliver five nights of jam-packed good ol' fashioned rodeo as well as the Fiesta Del Charro—a centuries-old, traditional Mexican horseman event featuring competitors hailing from south of the border.

Equally as lively as the rodeo, the Helldorado Days parade, held Saturday, May 17, features Nevada-themed floats and high school marching bands.

2014 marks the 80th year since Helldorado Days' inception and this Nevada 150 official event celebrates with a new location behind the Smith Center. The event, organized by the Elks, promises many Helldorado traditions, as well as some brand new activities including a carnival, mutton bustin',
