RENOWNED MUSICIANS PERFORM CLASSIC HITS AT THE PEARLS.

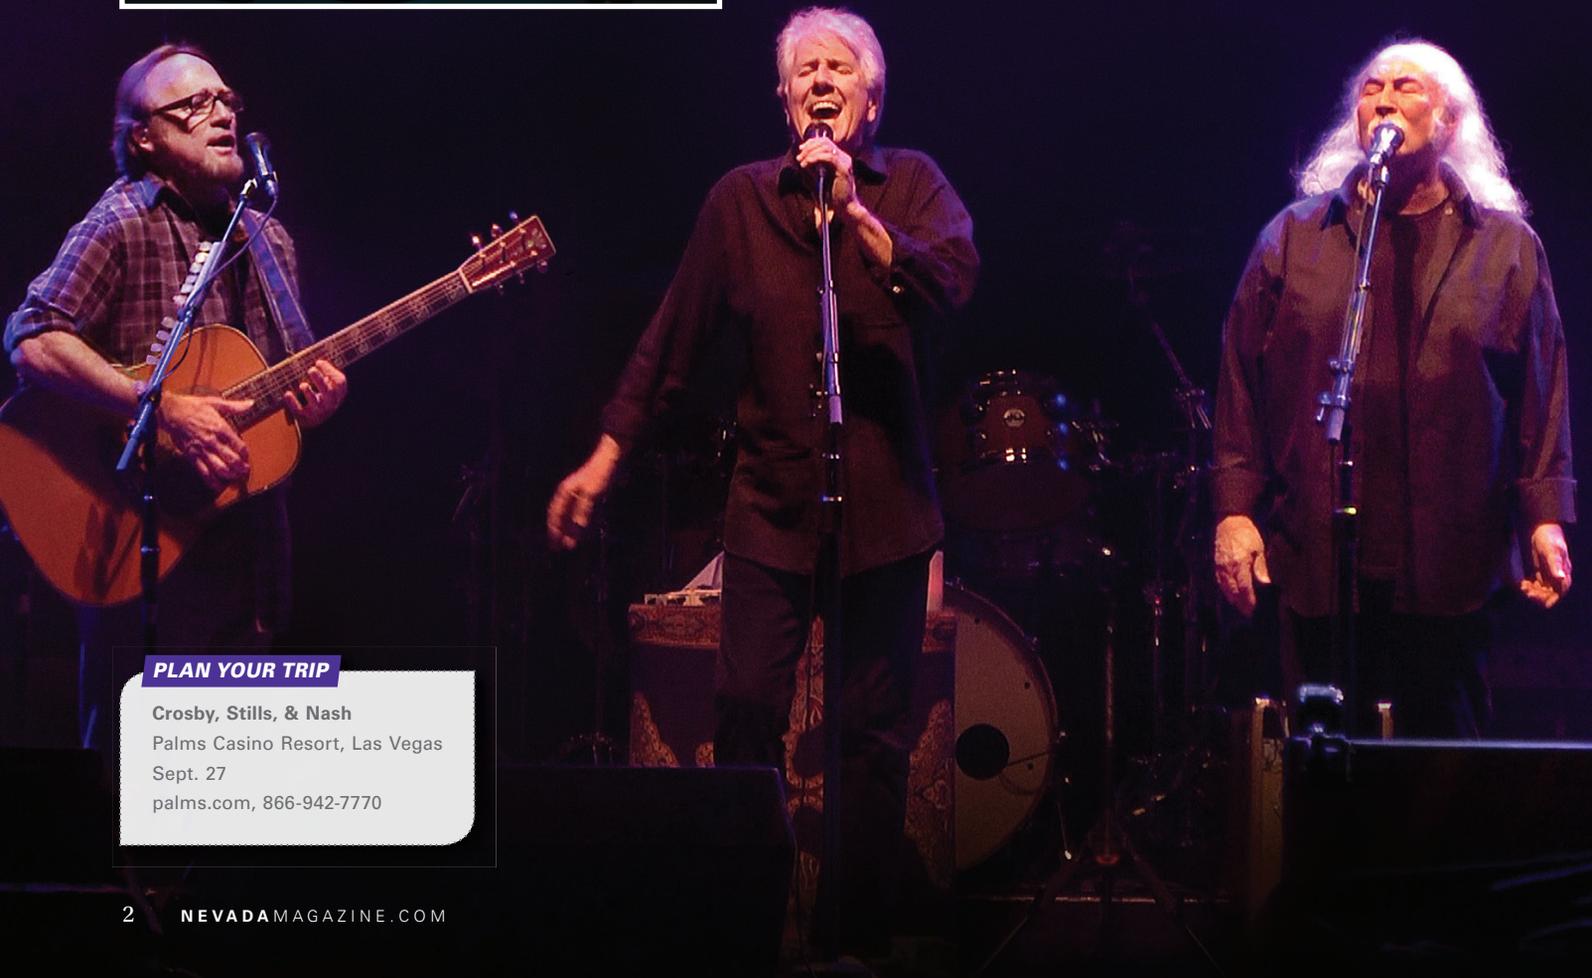

Crosby, Stills, & Nash

Crosby, Stills, & Nash are set to perform career-spanning favorites and new songs at The Pearl inside Palms Casino Resort on Sept. 27 at 8 p.m., with tickets starting at $59.

The group is performing songs from their extensive catalogue, as well as new material from each member. CSN is accompanied on stage by its backing band: Shane Fontayne (guitar), Steve DiStanislaw (drums), Kevin McCormick (bass), James Raymond (keyboards), and Todd Caldwell (organ).

More than four decades since the group first harmonized in Laurel Canyon and played its first-ever concert as a trio at Woodstock, its members continue a creative partnership that is one of the most influential and enduring in music. David Crosby, Stephen Stills, and Graham Nash have each been inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame two times. They are also in the Songwriter's Hall of Fame, honored both for CSN as a group, and as individual solo artists.

The era would also produce five additional Top 10 singles: "Sara Smile," "One on One," "You Make My Dreams," "Say It Isn't So," and "Method of Modern Love."

MUSICAL AND CULINARY FESTIVAL CELEBRATES SECOND YEAR IN LAS VEGAS.

The Life is Beautiful Festival has announced the official lineup and programming details for its highly anticipated sophomore year, set for Oct. 24-26. Expanding from a two-day to a three-day cultural event in response to the success of its first year, Life is Beautiful is set to once again host the world's top musicians, chefs, and cultural icons for an inspiring weekend in downtown Las Vegas. Expanding in both longevity and scope, this year's festival features nearly 70 chart-topping acts, dozens of culinary giants, and world-renowned speakers, all on four massive stages, with unexpected art installations and several culinary villages.

Life is Beautiful's culinary programming includes its popular Culinary Village experience—this time multiplied and integrated more seamlessly into the overall festival footprint—and will feature the best local restaurants that Las Vegas has to offer as well as curated, handcrafted pairings of beer, wine, and spirits from some of the world's most distinguished mixologists, wine makers, and brewers. Also featured are the intimate Chefs On Stage demonstrations where guests can get an up-close look at techniques and inspirations.

RISE LANTERN FESTIVAL

LIGHT UP THE SKY IN SOUTHERN NEVADA.

It's a centuries-old idea that's both simple and powerful. Thousands of lanterns, each representing a hope, a dream, a new leaf, or a forgotten wish coming together to form something beautiful. On Oct. 18, RiSE Lantern Festival is bringing the experience to the Mojave Desert near Las Vegas.

Attendees' assigned seating area includes an individual bamboo ground mat, two sky lanterns, and one ground lantern. During the first hour, guests have the chance to write personalized messages on each lantern while listening to live music, relaxing, and enjoying great food and wine available for purchase. An hour after sunset, RiSE culminates as everyone lights and releases their lanterns in unison.

RiSE's responsibility to leave no trace is taken seriously. The wide-open nature of the event area makes conservation possible. Because they're able to retrieve between 98-100% of the lanterns, and because each lantern is 100% biodegradable, sustainability is something they achieve with every event. Additionally, RiSE purchases carbon offsets for every vehicle they use in the setup and cleanup of the festival, and they encourage participants to purchase carbon offsets for their travel to and from the festival.

ELDORADO GREAT ITALIAN FESTIVAL

Eldorado Resort Casino, Reno
Oct. 11-12
eldoradoreno.com, 775-786-5700

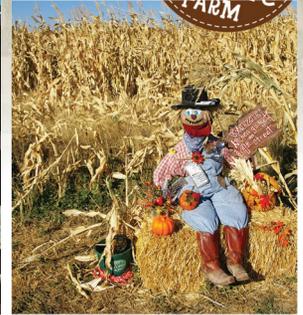

For 33 years, the Eldorado has brought the sights, sounds, and flavors of Italy to downtown Reno during the Eldorado Great Italian Festival. The festival, held each year in October, is a celebration of Italian culture and traditions.

Set for Oct. 11 and 12, the festival includes numerous event highlights including a grape stomp, sauce competition, live entertainment on two outdoor stages, an Italian farmer's market, bocce ball, kids' gelato eating contest, a wine walk, incredible Italian food, and an extensive Italian buffet inside the Eldorado.

FALL FARM FESTIVAL

SESQUICENTENNIAL-THEMED CORN MAZE AMONG FALL ATTRACTIONS.

The Lazy P Adventure Farm is hosting the second annual Fall Farm Festival, held weekends from Oct. 4 to Nov. 1. The festival includes a petting zoo, bounce house, cow train, corn cannon, face painting, pedal bikes, wagon rides, great food, and a pumpkin patch.

The highlight of this year's celebration is 6-acre corn maze designed in honor of Nevada's sesquicentennial. Traversing the design takes between 45 and 90 minutes; and for truly adventurous fun seekers, the maze can also be explored after dark. A mini-maze for small children is also available, and takes about 15 minutes.

Every attraction is designed to provide a lesson, including lessons in fright from the Fall Farm Festival's shockingly frightening Farmer's Harvest-Barn of Terror.

"This is not for the faint of heart," says co-owner of Lazy P Adventure Farm Kim Petersen. "If you really want to land smack dab in the middle of the Halloween spirit, be our guest, because you are seriously going to scream."

The Barn of Terror is open every Saturday night in October plus Friday, Oct. 31, and Saturday, Nov. 1.

The haunted attraction has been designed and constructed to stimulate guests' senses as they venture through the farmer's lair and eventually into the cornfield of screams.

REDRUN II

CAN YOU OUTFRAN THE LIVING DEAD IN VIRGINIA CITY?

The dead are brought to life for Redrun II—an authentic themed race that has participants running from zombies and living dead. The zombie sequel takes place in Virginia City on Oct. 11. Now in its second year, the Redrun course covers six miles with a series of six chilling dead zones and six dangerously enhanced obstacles.

“The feedback from the runners following last year’s inaugural race exceeded our expectations,” Jess Horning, partner and co-founder of Redrun, says. “Anyone that has heard the ghost stories of Virginia City or has seen a past episode of ‘Ghost Hunters,’ knows that this place has an eerie nature about itself.”

The course guides runners through some of the most infamous landmarks in the historic mining town filled with haunting tales. Runners fight off hungry zombies through century-old tunnels, a train graveyard, and the center of town. It’s not just zombies the runners must be afraid of; dodging the living insane keeps racers on their toes and moving along the course.

Following the race, the Zombie Manifestal—an after party that makes the zombies rise from the dead—includes live music, the Redrun Bar Crawl, and the Coors Light graveyard for fresh libations.

Participants can join the event in four ways: runner, living insane, living dead, or the resistance.

PONY UP!

CENTER FOR ADAPTIVE RIDING HOSTS ANNUAL FUNDRAISER AND HORSE SHOW.

Pony Up!—the Center for Adaptive Riding’s largest event and online fundraiser of the year—showcases horse riders of all ages and abilities. On Oct. 4, the center is hosting the event at their facility in Washoe Valley, celebrating with a day of competitions, prizes, and—the heart of all of the center’s programs—horses.

The action begins at 9:30 a.m., with a horse show that features classes specially designed to challenge riders. They include a costume class, an obstacle course, and more. Snacks, drinks, and T-shirts will be available for purchase during the event.

The Center for Adaptive Riding serves children and adults who have physical, cognitive, behavioral, and/or mental health challenges and improves their lives using interaction with horses. Dedicated volunteers last year gave more than 4000 hours in service to people with special needs, and in 2014, the number of riders, volunteers, and hours are stacking up to be much more!

The center is helping to raise funds to provide scholarships for riders who are in financial need, and to help pay for the care of horses and upkeep of the facility through an online fundraiser, which runs through Sept. 21. Those wishing to make contributions to the campaign can donate at razoo.com/story/center-for-adaptive-riding.

GREAT RENO BALLOON RACE

COLORFUL CREATIONS OFF ALL SHAPES AND SIZES TAKE TO THE SKIES ABOVE RENO.

TOM ROBINSON

The Great Reno Balloon Race has announced its full slate of 2014 attractions. The event, now in its 33rd year, takes to northern Nevada's sky with 90 hot-air balloons, including 14 special shapes, on Friday, Sept. 5 through Sunday, Sept. 7 from Rancho San Rafael Regional Park. Headlining the event is the 86-foot tall Darth Vader balloon, which depicts the iconic black helmet from the Star Wars villain.

"Every year, we strive to put on the best event possible for our fans," says Pete Copeland, executive director of GRBR. "This year is no exception. We've formed some incredible partnerships with new balloons, vendors, and local companies, as well as successfully shaped new promotions with current sponsors, like working with Raley's to bring Radio Disney, to add more value to the event."

In total, GRBR is set to feature 14 special shapes, including new balloons: High Kitty, Beagle Maximus, La Ristra, Old Lady and the Shoe, Perfect World, and returning special shapes: Darth Vader, Smokey Bear, Annie the Lady Bug, Sushi, Gus T. Guppy, Wells Fargo Cent're Stage, Soccer Ball, Pencil Boy, and Limoncello. For the past 20 years, Wilbur May Foundation has graciously sponsored two special-shaped balloons to give free tethered rides to the children and families of the Children's Cabinet. This year, Wilbur May has sponsored the Old Lady and the Shoe and the Beagle Maximus Balloons.

THE PHOTOGRAPHY OF JERRY FENWICK

RENO RESIDENT DISPLAYS ARTWORK AT NEVADA HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

Sitting on a wooden stool more than 60 years ago, award-winning Reno photographer Jerry Fenwick watched his father navigate his darkroom, which was dug by hand under his family's California home. The elder Fenwick developed film and made prints, teaching his son a love of history and photography at the same time.

A Reno resident for more than 60 years, Fenwick is nationally recognized and considered one of Washoe County's most accomplished and respected photographers. He grew up in the family's downtown art business, developing his craft and learning to restore, collect, and protect the images of his community's past.

His latest exhibition of nature photos depicting local birds, animals, and flowers is a gift to the community. On display at the Nevada Historical Society through Sept. 27, the collection is set to be sold, with all proceeds donated to the Society for continuing programs.

"I grow most of my own floral subjects and I have landscaped my backyard to encourage birds to visit, stay long enough to be photographed, and sometimes raise a family," Fenwick says. Some of his earlier work was displayed at the 1964-65 World's Fair in New York City.

THE SEARCH IS ON FOR NEVADA PLATES IN NEVADA LOCATIONS.

The Nevada Department of Motor Vehicles is sponsoring a photography contest and the winner will receive a piece of Nevada history—the license plate that marks Nevada’s 150th anniversary. Nevada was admitted to the Union on Oct. 31, 1864.

The one-of-a-kind Nevada sesquicentennial license plate number “NV 0150” will be awarded to one lucky winner on Thursday, Oct. 30, the day before Nevada Day, 2014. To enter the contest, snap a photo of any Nevada license plate in a Nevada location and email it to the DMV. The agency will feature weekly finalists on the DMV Facebook page and other social media outlets. There are more than 8,000 sesquicentennial license plates currently registered on Nevada vehicles since its release in July 2013. dmvnev.com/contest

NEVADA 150 BELT BUCKLES

COMMEMORATIVE SESQUICENTENNIAL
AVAILABLE FOR PURCHASE.

State Senator James Settlemyer and the Nevada 150 Commission joined Crumrine Gold & Silversmiths, a Nevada based belt buckle craftsman, to create limited edition sesquicentennial belt buckles. The pieces are $100 each and all proceeds go toward the Nevada 150 Foundation.

The belt buckles are handcrafted with historical jewelers bronze. This highly valuable metal is 85 percent copper and 15 percent zinc, resembling a 14-Karat gold finish. Each individual buckle comes with a specialized unit number. The distinct identification will make the pieces rare collectors' items.

Only a limited number of buckles will be manufactured for the sesquicentennial. The buckles are available in the Legislative Gift Shop located at 401 S. Carson Street, Carson City, and at other Nevada 150 events around the state. nevada150.org, 775-687-0608

On Saturday, Nov. 1, the 2014 Carson City Nevada Day Parade takes to the streets of the state's capital. This year's parade theme is "Happy 150th Birthday, Nevada," celebrating more than a year's worth of events and paying special tribute to 150 years of statehood.

The day kicks off at 8 a.m. with a hot air balloon launch near the Carson Mall on Carson Street (weather permitting). At 10 a.m., a military flyover signals the start of the parade.

The parade features more than 200 entries, including local law enforcement, public officials, floats, marching bands, and more. The procession begins at the intersection of William and Carson Streets, and concludes at the intersection of Stewart and Carson Streets.
