PREFACE

The Secretary of State's office has prepared this brief guide of the recount and contest procedures as printed in Chapter 293 of the Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) and other pertinent sections of the Nevada Constitution, Title 24 Election Laws of NRS and Nevada Administrative Code (NAC). The purpose of this guide is to provide an understanding of the procedures and requirements necessary for demanding and receiving a recount or contesting an election. It is important to note that this guide is for general information only and does not have the force and effect of Nevada law, regulation or rule. Interested parties should obtain the most recent version of NRS and NAC, as Nevada's Election Laws are amended each legislative session and the Election Regulations are updated periodically.

RECOUNT AND CONTEST INFORMATION

This section contains general information relating to all recounts and election contests. The provisions governing recounts and election contests are found in Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) 293.400 through NRS 293.435 and in Nevada Administrative Code (NAC) 293.178 through 293.180.

For race specific recount information, please refer to the sections below relating to statewide recounts, multi-county district recounts, single county district recounts and city recounts. For specific information on election contests, see the section below relating to contests.

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A RECOUNT AND AN ELECTION CONTEST?

A contest of an election is an adversary proceeding filed in District Court (except in Assembly, Senate, Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Justice of the Supreme Court races, which are filed with the Secretary of State) between a candidate for public office who has received the greatest number of votes and any other candidate for that office, or, in certain cases any registered voter for the purpose of determining the validity of an election (NRS 293.042). A recount is a recount of votes cast at an election. A candidate at an election or a registered voter may request a recount and/or contest an election.

CAN A RECOUNT AND AN ELECTION CONTEST OCCUR FOR THE SAME OFFICE OR THE SAME BALLOT QUESTION?

Yes. Under the NRS provisions, both a recount and an election contest can occur. However, the election contest must be based on specific statutory grounds as set forth in NRS 293.410.

WHO MAY REQUEST A RECOUNT?

Any defeated candidate or any candidate who ends up in a tie with another candidate may demand and receive a recount of the number of votes received for the candidate and the number of votes received for the person who won the election. The recount is not done for every candidate for that office. Any voter may demand and receive a recount for a ballot question (NRS 293.403(2)).

WHEN MUST THE RECOUNT DEMAND BE MADE?

A recount cannot be demanded prior to the official canvass of the vote. A demand for a recount must be made within three working days after the canvass of the vote. The canvass of the vote is the review of the election results by the Nevada Supreme Court, county commissioners or city council (NRS 293.032 and NRS 293.400(4)). See pages 4-8 for specific timelines regarding statewide, multi-county districts, single county districts and city recounts.

HOW IS THE DEMAND FOR A RECOUNT MADE?

A statewide or multi-county demand for a recount must be filed in writing with the Secretary of State (NRS 203.403(1)(a)). The Secretary of State will accept a demand for recount in person or by mail. A single county demand for a recount must be filed with the County Clerk/Registrar of Voters of that county. A city demand must be filed with the City Clerk. The demand for a recount must be accompanied by a deposit of the estimated cost of the recount made in advance with the appropriate filing officer (NRS 293.403(1)(b)). Payment can generally be made in cash, cashier's check or certified check. See pages 4-8 for cost determinations.

IS THERE A RECOUNT DEMAND FORM TO BE FILLED OUT?

No. The candidate or voter who would like a recount simply submits a letter stating the office or ballot question for which the recount is requested, and the precincts he/she desires to be recounted, and includes the appropriate advanced deposit for the cost of the recount. See pages 4-8 for cost determinations.

AFTER A DEMAND IS MADE IS THERE A TIME DURING WHICH THE RECOUNT MUST OCCUR?

NRS 293.405(3) states the recount must begin within five days after the demand is filed and that the recount must be completed within five days after it has begun. Sundays and holidays are included in determining each five day period. Each county or city may decide to begin a recount at any time during that five-day period after the demand is made. However once the recount has begun, it must be completed within five days.

WHO DETERMINES WHAT PRECINCTS SHALL BE RECOUNTED?

The candidate or voter who demanded the recount shall select five percent (5%) of the precincts, but in no case fewer than three precincts, within each of the affected counties. All of the ballots to be recounted within those precincts for that office will be recounted.

If it is a candidate who demands the recount, the candidate must, prior to selecting the precincts, notify each of the other candidates for office, the other candidate's authorized representative, as to which precincts are being selected (NRS 293.404(4)). The person demanding a recount shall include in the demand for a recount a list, by county, of the precincts selected to be recounted.

WHAT IS THE PROCESS FOR RECOUNTING THE BALLOTS?

NRS 203.404 sets forth the recount process as follows:

- The County Clerk/Registrar of Voters of each county shall employ a Recount Board, which shall conduct the recount.
- The County Clerk/Registrar of Voters shall act as the chairman of the Recount Board (unless the recount is for the office of County Clerk).
- At least one member of the board of County Commissioners, who is not a candidate, must be present at the recount.
- The County Clerk/Registrar of Voters shall unseal and give to the Recount Board all ballots to be recounted.
- The Recount Board shall examine all of the ballots from the selected precincts to determine whether the ballots were voted in accordance with state election laws.
- This process is the same for city recounts.

WHO CAN OBSERVE THE RECOUNT?

The public, the candidate and/or the candidate's representative may observe the recount, but observers may not challenge ballots or interfere in any way with the determination of the Recount Board as to how ballots are counted. Observers are subject to removal if they interfere in the counting procedures (See NRS 293B.353 and Attorney General's Opinion No. 175 November 25, 1974).

DOES THE SECRETARY OF STATE OBSERVE THE RECOUNT?

A County Clerk/Registrar of Voters may request the Secretary of State or his designated representative to observe the recount (NAC 293.179).

WHEN WILL THE RESULTS OF THE RECOUNT BE RELEASED TO THE PUBLIC?

On the day the County Clerk/Registrar of Voters completes the recount in his/her respective county, the County Clerk/Registrar will notify the Secretary of State of the results of the recount. The Secretary of State will release the results to the public when the results from all affected counties are received.

MAY THE PERSON WHO DEMANDS A RECOUNT WITHDRAW THE DEMAND?

Yes, a withdrawal of a demand for a recount must be made in writing to the appropriate filing officer and can be requested at any time before the completion of the recount. However, a person who withdraws the demand for a recount may not request a new recount or that the recount begin again (NAC 293.179). That person will also be responsible for the costs accrued by the county or city up until the recount is stopped.

STATEWIDE RECOUNTS

This section contains information specific to statewide office and statewide ballot question recounts only. Statewide races are those which are voted upon by all voters of the entire state of Nevada. Payment can be made in cash, cashier's check, certified check, or by credit card. See below for cost determination.

HOW IS THE COST OF A STATEWIDE RECOUNT DETERMINED?

At the request of the Secretary of State, each County Clerk/Registrar of Voters shall calculate the estimated cost for that county and notify the Secretary of State of the cost in writing.

The determination of estimated or actual costs of any recount must be made in accordance with NAC 293.180.

If the advance deposit is greater than the cost of the recount, the excess shall be refunded by the Secretary of State (NRS 293.405(1)). If the person who demanded the recount prevails, the advance deposit shall be refunded in full by the Secretary of State to that person.

When an election is annulled or set aside on any other ground the defendant (for example the losing candidate or the election officials) is responsible for court costs.

ARE ELECTION CONTESTS FOR ASSEMBLY AND STATE SENATE DIFFERENT THAN OTHER ELECTION CONTESTS?

Yes. The statement of contest for election contests involving an Assembly or State Senate office must be filed with the Secretary of State (NRS 293.425). If the person who demanded the recount does not prevail, and it is found that the sum deposited was less than the cost of the recount, the person shall, upon demand, pay the deficiency to the county clerk, city clerk or secretary of state, as the case may be. If the sum deposited is in excess of the cost, the excess must be refunded to him.

2. If the person who demanded the recount prevails, the sum deposited with the secretary of state, county clerk or city clerk must be refunded to the person and the cost of the recount must be paid as follows:
 - (a) If the recount concerns an office or ballot question for which voting is not statewide, the cost must be borne by the county or city which conducted the recount.
 - (b) If the recount concerns an office or ballot question for which voting is statewide, the clerk of each county shall submit a statement of its costs in the recount to the secretary of state for review and approval. The secretary of state shall submit the statements to the state board of examiners, which shall repay the allowable costs from the reserve for statutory contingency account to the respective counties.
3. Each recount must be commenced within 5 days after demand, and must be completed within 5 days after it is begun. Sundays and holidays must not be excluded in determining each 5-day period.
4. After the recount of a precinct is completed, that precinct must not be subject to another recount for the same office or ballot question at the same election.
