FREE NEVADA DUCK STAMP FOR ELIGIBLE HUNTERS

With the recent approval by the Nevada Board of Wildlife Commission, a free Nevada Duck stamp is now available for eligible hunters.

Eligible hunters may now request a free Nevada Duck Stamp for License Year 2010 (which concluded February 28, 2010) and for the current License Year 2011 (which concludes February 28, 2011). To obtain your free stamp, you must have purchased an "electronic stamp privilege" for either or both of these license years.

To obtain the free stamp, you must submit an order form to NDOW. The order form can be found on the NDOW website at www.ndow.org/wild/stamp/.

If you are eligible and wish to obtain the free Nevada Duck Stamp for License Year 2011 (Northern Shoveler), NDOW must be in receipt of your order form no later than March 31, 2011. Because the stamp can only be made available once it is considered "expired," the License Year 2011 stamp will not be provided to the requester until after the close of the 2011 license year (February 28, 2011).

ATTENTION WOOD DUCK HUNTERS

A research project is currently underway to study wood ducks in western Nevada. At hatch, a webtag is attached to ducklings. This webtag resembles a small staple with engraved numbers and is attached in the webbing of a foot. Reports of wood ducks with a webtag are extremely valuable to researchers. If you harvest a wood duck with a webtag, please contact Chris Nicolai by phone at (775) 784-6393 or e-mail at Chris_Nicolai@fws.gov.
