PREFACE

The Office of the Secretary of State has prepared this brief summary of the applicable sections of Title 24 of the Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) and the election-related laws found in the Nevada Administrative Code (NAC). The purpose of this guide is to provide an understanding of the guidelines and requirements associated with the 2024 Election. It is important to note that this guide is for general information only and does not have the force and effect of Nevada law, regulation, or rule. Interested citizens should obtain the most recent version of the NRS and NAC since Nevada's election laws are amended each legislative session. Interested parties should also be aware that election issues are periodically addressed by the Attorney General, the Secretary of State, or by state or federal courts. Due to the general scope of this guide, some of these issues may not be addressed here. Interested parties should review Attorney General Opinions and court decisions and should contact the Secretary of State or a Nevada attorney with any specific questions.

* Candidates who file a Declaration of Candidacy for a multi-County office/seat must do so with the Secretary of State's Office, either in Carson City or Las Vegas, Nevada.

HISTORICAL OVERVIEW OF CONSTITUTIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR STATE OFFICES

Article 15, Section 3 of the Nevada Constitution states that, “No person shall be eligible to any office who is not a qualified elector under this Constitution.”

“Qualified Elector” is defined as follows:

All citizens of the United States (not laboring under the disabilities named in this constitution) of the age of eighteen and upward, who shall have actually, and not constructively, resided in the state six months, and in the district or county 30 days next preceding any election, shall be entitled to vote for all officers that now or hereafter may be elected by the people, and upon all questions submitted to the electors at such election: provided that no person who has been or may be convicted of treason or felony in any state or territory of the United States, unless restored to civil rights, and no person who has been adjudicated mentally incompetent, unless restored to legal capacity, shall be entitled to the privilege of an elector.

Nevada Constitution, Article 2, Section 1

Residency: After the United States Supreme Court issued its opinion in Dunn v. Blumstein, 405 U.S. 330 (1972), the Nevada Attorney General opined that the six-month residency requirement in Article 2, Section 1 of the Nevada Constitution was preempted by the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution. See Nevada Attorney General Opinion 85 (6/19/72). Thereafter, the Nevada Legislature enacted NRS 293.485. That statute provides, in relevant part, that a person is a qualified elector upon residency in Nevada for at least 30 days prior to the election.

Age: Some public offices have a minimum age requirement other than eighteen. For example, members of the Nevada Legislature must be at least 21 years old (NRS 218A.200). Constitutional Officers (i.e., Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, State Controller, and Attorney General), Justices of the Nevada Supreme Court, and District Judges must be at least 25 years old (Nevada Constitution, Article 5, Sec. 3; NRS 2.010; and NRS 3.060). Minimum age requirements are constitutional. See Mengelkamp v. List, 88 Nev. 542 (1972) (holding that NRS 218A.200, was constitutional).

Term Limits: Term limits were proposed by initiative and were approved by Nevada voters at the general elections in 1994 and 1996. See Nevada Constitution, Article 4, Sec. 3 (Assembly); Article 4, Sec. 4 (Senate); Article 5, Sec. 19 (Constitutional Offices); and Article 15, Sec. 3 (public offices). There are no term limits for judges. See Nevada Judges Ass’n v. Lau, 112 Nev. 51 (1996) (holding that the term limits ballot question should be presented to the voters as two questions – one applicable to public officials and the second applicable to judges. The voters passed the former and rejected the latter). Term limits are not retroactive and apply only to periods of service commencing after November 27, 1996. See Nevada Attorney General Opinion 96-23 (8/9/96).
